Graduation of TV's class of 2000

By John Crook

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Cover story

This week marks graduation ceremonies for the class of 2000 at many high schools and colleges around the country.

What better time, then, to recognize the performers, both newcomers and veterans, who brought style and substance to the tube in the recent TV season? Without further ado, our candidates for TV's own class of 2000:

-Lorraine Bracco, "The Sopranos" (HBO). An Oscar nominee ("GoodFellas"), Bracco was somewhat blown off the screen by Edie Falco's brassy Carmela Soprano during the first season of the HBO hit. In the second season — now airing in repeats — Bracco really came into her own, however, as Dr. Jennifer Melfi began to melt down under the strain of coping with her mobster patient, Tony Soprano. The results were touching, compelling and frequently hilarious — while putting an unforgettable new spin on the phrase "toodle-oo" as well.

-Allison Janney, "The West Wing" (NBC). Aaron Sorkin's political dramedy emerged as one of the season's biggest hits, thanks to a sharp ensemble cast and smart writing. Shining as first among equals, however, was the stage-trained Janney, whose driven but compassionate and good-humored press secretary, C.J. Cregg, helped cut the occasionally sanctimonious tone with her earthiness and — most memorably — the most infectious and unfettered belly laugh in all of prime time.

Fresh 'Action' this summer on Fox's sister FX

Jay Mohr
ACTION

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

I can't be the only person who thought Fox's "Action" was a smart, funny show. Any chance we will ever see the episodes Fox never aired? -Bill D., Atlanta.

Yes. Fox's cable sister channel, FX, will carry all 13 episodes of the Jay Mohr-Illeana Douglas comedy this summer, including five that never aired on network TV. No date had been set as of this writing.

Besides "Dragnet" and "M*A*S*H," was actor Harry Morgan ever in a show called "Pete and Gladys"? -A. Mancheski, Denmark, Wis.

Morgan starred with Cara Williams in this 1960-62 domestic sitcom about wisecracking insurance agent Pete Porter and his dizzy wife, Gladys.

"Pete and Gladys" was a spinoff of "December Bride," an earlier sitcom in which Morgan's Pete appeared but the often-discussed Gladys never did. "Bride" regular Verna Felton reprised her character, Hilda Crocker, on "Pete and Gladys."

Did Christopher Walken play "Kookie" on "77 Sunset Strip"? - L.E., Ypsilanti, Mich.

Walken was still in high school when "Strip" premiered in 1958. An actor named Edd Byrnes scored a huge personal hit with viewers as Gerald Lloyd Kookson III, a k a Kookie. Unfortunately, like Henry Winkler and his "Happy Days" character, Fonzie, Byrnes — now 66 — found himself typecast and has spent most of his career in B-grade movie and TV projects.

I was amused by the question of Mike Minor's death of AIDS in 1987. Fans of Mr. Minor, former husband of Linda Kaye Henning, might want to know he was very much alive as of last fall. He was in "Perfect Crime" at the Duffy Theatre in New York as late as October 1999. Evidently Mrs. Mosbrook's information is about someone else. -Stephen J. Krug via e-mail.

Thanks for the clarification.

Sunday's Best Bets

Movie: D3: The Mighty Ducks

6 p.m. on ABC

The ragtag youth hockey team of 1992's "The Mighty Ducks" and its 1994 sequel returns in this 1996 outing, which finds the players winning athletic scholarships to a private academy. The snooty varsity team and its no-nonsense coach (Jeffrey Nordling) give the Ducks considerable grief for their ethnic diversity, gender mixing and unconventional style, but a little resourcefulness and some help from ex-coach Gordon Bombay (Emilio Estevez) bring about the requisite Disney ending. Joshua Jackson ("Dawson's Creek"), David Selby and Kenan Thompson also star.

Touched by an Angel

7 p.m. on CBS

As facilitator of a support group for the terminally ill, Monica (Roma Downey) urges her charges to think about what they want most to accomplish before the end. Rachel (Nancy McKeon), who has a brain tumor, wants to meet the child she gave up for adoption 12 years ago, but she fears that her death will leave the child feeling abandoned a second time. But when everyone pitches in to make one another's wishes come true, it all works out for both Rachel and her daughter. Kathy Ireland and Eileen Brennan also guest star in "The Last Day of the Rest of Your Life."

Major League Baseball

7 p.m. on ESPN

If MVP awards were handed out quarterly, this game's competitors, the Arizona Diamondbacks and Texas Rangers, would each have a deserving candidate. The Diamondbacks had the National League's best record at this writing, thanks in part to centerfielder Steve Finley, who's led the team in average, home runs, RBIs and runs. The Rangers struggled in the season's first quarter, although catcher Ivan Rodriguez has been producing as usual. He's also topped his team in four offensive categories, following up his 1999 MVP season with what may be another one.

The 54th Annual Tony Awards

8 p.m. on CBS

Revivals of two classic musicals — "Kiss Me, Kate" and "Meredith Willson's The Music Man" — are front-runners at this year's awards for Broadway's best. "Kate" has 12 nominations, and the "Man" is up for nine trophies. Only three new shows are nominated in the best musical category: "James Joyce's The Dead," "Swing!" and "The Wild Party." Among the actors up for honors are several famous faces from film and TV, including Gabriel Byrne ("A Moon for the Misbegotten"), Christopher Walken ("James Joyce's The Dead") and Blair Brown ("Copenhagen").

Latifah gears up for a new season

By Lorri Antosz Benson

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Queen Latifah is one of this season's few rookies who knows she has a job in the fall. It's not that she's got Oprah shaking in her boots, but compared to the other talk show freshmen and the just-canceled "Leeza," the hip-hop talk host is doing just fine.

She's got the attention of her syndicator, Warner Brothers, who recruited Jenny Jones' executive producers to clean house and get the ratings up. They wouldn't have bothered if they didn't see major potential there.

Meantime, Latifah got some recent footage that would be perfect for an end-of-season blooper show. Country crooner Trisha Yearwood was a guest on a show titled "Learn to Love Yourself." She came to publicize her latest album, "Real Live Woman," but the topic struck a chord (excuse the pun) for her on many levels.

The show covered body image, self-esteem and issues of self-worth.

Talk the Talk

Yearwood, a larger woman, discussed how her advisers constantly encourage her to lose weight, telling her how her success would soar if she trimmed a few excess pounds. Yearwood came on Latifah's show to say she's a big woman and likes it that way. She didn't get any arguments from the host, another woman with some meat on her bones.

Back to the potential blooper reel and what you didn't see at the end of the show. Yearwood belted out a tune and was supposed to leave her chair at the finish and walk toward Latifah. But Yearwood tripped — stop tape and take two! She finished her song again, and instant replay: Her poncho caught on the chair, and another trip! Stop tape, take three! This time, the host said she would walk over to Yearwood. At the big moment, Latifah started over and, you guessed it, tripped on her platform shoes! Only on a talk show.

Queen Latifah

But not only on Queen Latifah's show. Recently on "Donny & Marie," actress Cloris Leachman was clowning around and slipped, barreling into the crowd. You may have seen that maneuver, however, because the actress dared Donny and Marie to leave it in the show. It's hard to turn down a dare, and the sibling duo couldn't resist. It aired just as it happened.

Monday's Best Bets

It's Your Chance of a Lifetime

7 p.m. on FOX

In this latest entry in the prime-time game show sweepstakes, contestants answer trivia questions to wipe out their credit card debt and give them a stake to bet on more questions. If they keep wagering wisely and answering correctly, they can take home megabucks. Fox is giving this show a five-night tryout this week, so fans of "Millionaire" can get a quiz fix on those evenings when Regis is resting.

WNBA Basketball

7 p.m. on ESPN

Yolanda Griffith and the Sacramento Monarchs visit Shannon Johnson and the Orlando Miracle. Griffith, the second overall pick in the 1999 draft, put together a fantastic rookie season for the Monarchs, leading the club in points and rebounds per game and taking it on to the playoffs. She also recorded 15 double-doubles in 29 games. For the Miracle, Johnson, the team's points and assists leader, and former UConn star Nykesha Sales make up a talented guard tandem and should pose problems for Sacramento's defenders.

Ally McBeal

8 p.m. on FOX

Ally (Calista Flockhart) is on the receiving end of a lawsuit for emotional distress filed by the young woman whose relationship she tried to save. Ling (Lucy Liu) gives Fish (Greg Germann) some news about their sex life that drives him into the arms of a former lover.

Movie: An American Daughter

8 p.m. on LIFE

A dedicated doctor's dream of becoming surgeon general of the United States is jeopardized when a friend lets it slip to a reporter that she once ignored a call for jury duty. While the media have a field day with this threat to her professional aspirations, she faces more crises in her personal life: Her husband is having an affair, and her best friend is suicidal. Christine Lahti and Tom Skerritt star.

P.O.V.

9 p.m. on PBS

Life-or-death decisions aren't just made in doctors' offices and courtrooms. "Well-Founded Fear" visits with the Immigration and Naturalization Service officials who weigh requests for political asylum. The title comes from the criterion that an applicant must meet: Is his fear of persecution in his homeland well-founded? And how does one determine that from behind a desk thousands of miles away? People on both sides of the process tell their stories in Shari Robertson and Michael Camerini's two-hour film, which opens the documentary showcase series' 13th season.

Tuesday's Best Bets

Laureus World Sports Awards

7 p.m. on TNT

Think of this brand-new awards program as the Olympics of its genre — a quest for the best in the world, although the inaugural effort is dominated by American names. Slated to be announced and honored are a sportsman, sportswoman, team, comeback and newcomer of the year, as well as an outstanding athlete with a disability and a top performer in an alternative sport. Andre Agassi is up for two trophies: sportsman of the year and comeback of the year. Prince Albert and Princess Stephanie of Monaco are among the celebrity presenters at the event, which airs from Monte Carlo.

Dharma & Greg

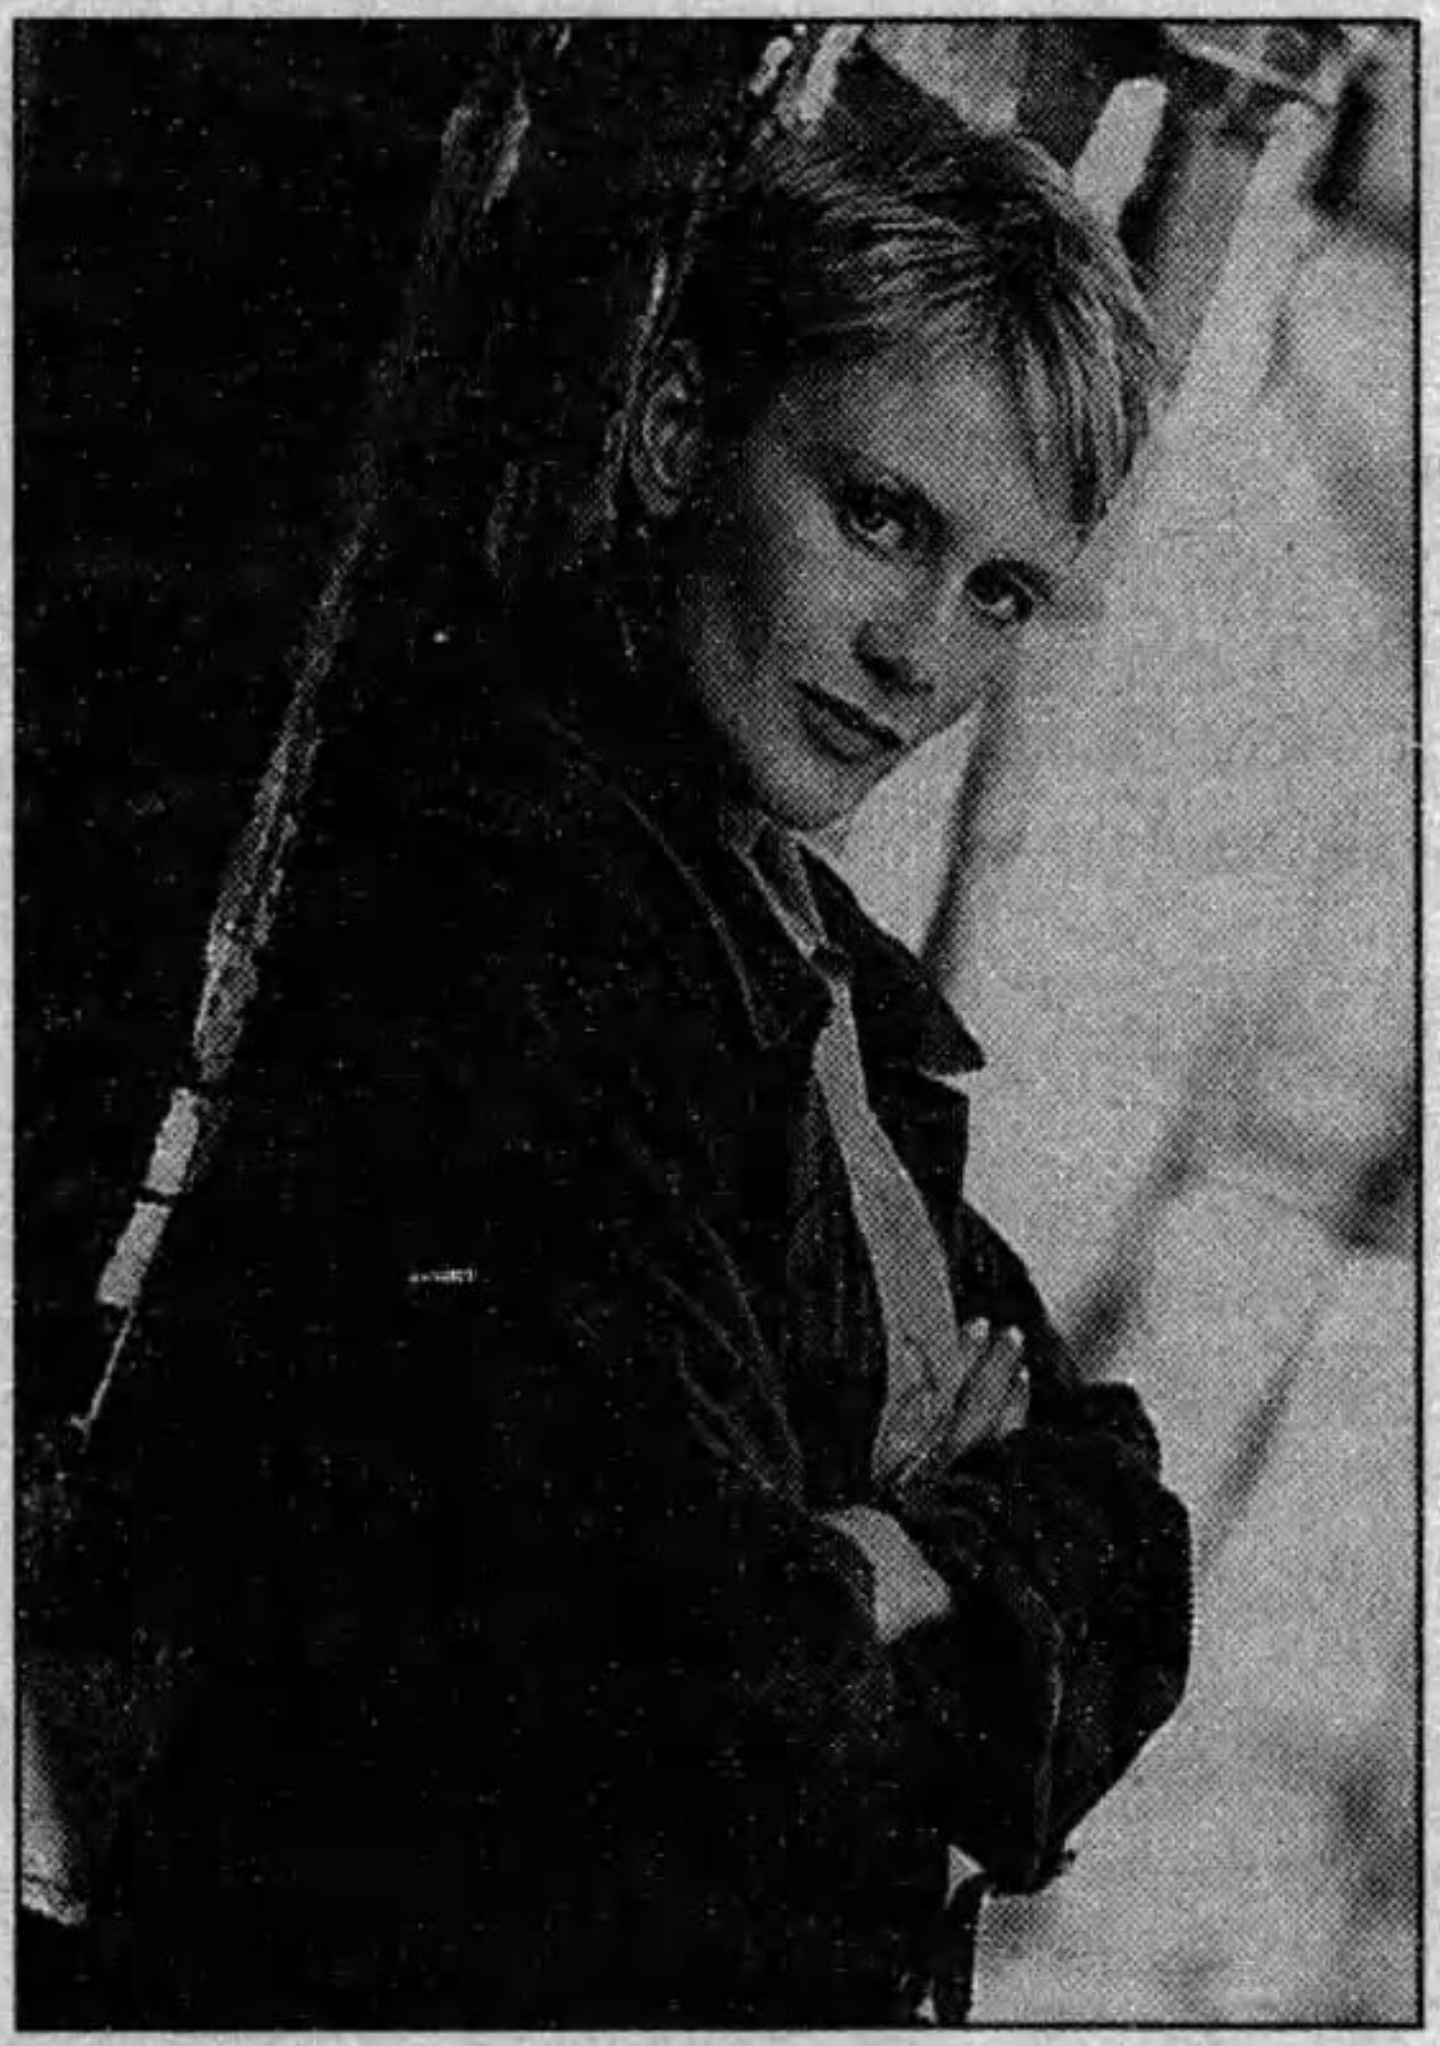
8 p.m. on ABC

Dharma (Jenna Elfman) has to make a tough call when she plays employment agent, seeking a secretary for Greg (Thomas Gibson). Does she trust him enough to install a beautiful woman in that position? Liz Vassey and Yeardley Smith guest star.

Movie: Presumed Innocent

8 p.m. on LIFE

An assistant prosecutor is found murdered in her apartment, and the chief suspect turns out to be her boss — who also was her lover. While preparing his defense, the man discovers some unsavory facts about his late mistress. Harrison Ford stars in this 1990 adaptation of Scott Turow's best seller.



Andrea Thompson
NYPD BLUE

M.Y.O.B.

8:30 p.m. on NBC

A streetwise teen and her straight-laced aunt form an unconventional family of two in this edgy new sitcom. Katharine Towne ("The Bachelor") plays Riley, the young runaway who goes looking for her biological mom and finds Aunt Opal (Lauren Graham, "One True Thing"), a school administrator whose no-nonsense demeanor masks her loneliness. Needless to say, living together will be challenging for these two very different women, but it couldn't hurt if their respective personalities rub off on each other a little.

NYPD Blue

9 p.m. on ABC

Russell and Kirkendall (Kim Delaney, Andrea Thompson) investigate the murder of a prostitute's child while trying to keep their relationship on an even keel in the wake of Russell's disturbing disclosure. Sipowicz and Sorenson (Dennis Franz, Rick Schroder) try to encourage a parolee not to give up after a friend is killed. Erik Todd Dellums guest stars in "A Hole in Juan."

Wednesday's Best Bets

Movie: The Naked Gun

6:30 p.m. on HBO

The failed TV series "Police Squad!" inspired this 1988 big-screen comedy hit, which spawned two sequels. Leslie Nielsen stars as the bumbling Lt. Frank Drebin, who's on the case when the visiting Queen of England becomes an assassination target. George Kennedy and O.J. Simpson also star as police officers, Nancy Marchand plays the mayor, and Ricardo Montalban portrays a rich shipping baron.

Two Guys and a Girl

7 p.m. on ABC

Berg and Sharon (Ryan Reynolds, Traylor Howard) are both having memory lapses. Berg seems to have blocked out the fact that Ashley (Suzanne Cryer) has moved in, even though he's the one who invited her. At premarital counseling, Sharon recalls a tender moment with Johnny (Nathan Fillion), but she's remembering the wrong guy. Richard Ruccolo also stars in "Berg's New Roommate."

Movie: Now and Then

8 p.m. on CBS

This 1995 comedy-drama is regarded by some as a "Stand by Me" for girls. Christina Ricci and Gaby Hoffmann play two of the four 12-year-old pals, who discover adolescence during the summer of 1970. Rosie O'Donnell, Demi Moore, Melanie Griffith and Rita Wilson play their adult counterparts. As women, they have somehow managed to stay in touch through the years, even though their adult lives are not nearly as ideal as their childhoods. Thora Birch also stars.

Suzanne Cryer
TWO GUYS AND A GIRL

Britney in Hawaii

8 p.m. on FOX

The reigning queen of teeny-bopper pop takes her act on the road and out to sea in this hourlong special. It combines clips of Britney Spears playing tourist with footage from a concert at Waikiki featuring hits from her first album and the recently released "Oops! ... I Did It Again." Joining her onstage are the group Destiny's Child and R & B singer Joe.

Movie: Come on Get Happy: The Partridge Family Story

8 p.m. on VH1

Eve Gordon heads up the cast of this drama about the real lives of a fake music group. The stars' psychedelic bus ride to stardom is played out amid family problems, fan hysteria and the vagaries of showbiz. Rodney Scott, Kathy Wagner, Shawn Pyfrom, JB Gaynor, Scotty Leavenworth and Tara Blanchard play the young actors whose lives were changed forever by their roles as members of the singing family. Danny Bonaduce, who played precocious middle son Danny in the hit '70s sitcom, served as consultant.

Thursday's Best Bets

Friends

7 p.m. on NBC

Monica and Rachel discover just how difficult breaking up can be when Rachel prepares to move in with Phoebe. As the-soon-to-be-former roomies reminisce about the best times of their friendship, their nostalgia turns nasty. Chandler takes the high road with a short-on-cash Joey when he tries to forfeit several betting games. But losing turns out to be more difficult than Chandler thought with Joey involved.

Popular

7 p.m. on WB

Delta Burke, no stranger to ex-beauty queen roles, guest stars in "Queen B." as Mary Cherry's (Leslie Grossman) mom, a tiara-and-title veteran who'll do anything to get her daughter elected homecoming queen (well, almost anything; this isn't "The Positively True Adventures of the Alleged Texas Cheerleader-Murdering Mom"). The competition includes Brooke (Leslie Bibb) and Carmen (Sara Rue), who, to Brooke's chagrin, is getting help with her campaign from Sam (Carly Pope). Tamara Mello also stars.

3rd Rock From the Sun

7:30 p.m. on NBC

Dick (John Lithgow) is caught up in the action at an auction, waging a bidding war with Strudwick (Ron West) for a painting. He wins, but when the auction fever breaks, he wants his money back, even if he has to take it out of the mouths of babes. Back home, Sally (Kristen Johnston) seeks a cure for her snoring, while Harry and Tommy (French Stewart, Joseph Gordon-Levitt) seek help with their mission statement from the boob tube. Jane Curtin also stars in "Charitable Dick."

3RD ROCK FROM THE SUN

2000 MTV Movie Awards

8 p.m. on MTV

"The Matrix" and "Austin Powers: The Spy Who Shagged Me" lead the list of nominees at this most unconventional of awards shows; each is a candidate for six prizes. A highlight of the show each year is the music, which, unlike the tunes at the Oscars, isn't tied to the movies; this is MTV, after all. Scheduled to take the stage in the ninth annual telecast are Metallica, D'Angelo and 'N Sync, giving the first-ever TV performance of "It's Gonna Be Me" from its hit sophomore album. The show is also known for its unique award categories, including best kiss and best villain. Nominees in the latter category include perennial bad guy Christopher Walken for "Sleepy Hollow" and TV good girl Sarah Michelle Gellar for "Cruel Intentions." Sarah Jessica Parker hosts.

Friday's Best Bets

Major League Baseball

6:35 p.m. on TBS

Interleague play continues with the Boston Red Sox visiting the Atlanta Braves in the start of a three-game series. Both clubs know the value of pitching — the Sox staff is led by the almost unhittable Pedro Martinez, while the Braves feature perennial all-stars Greg Maddux and Tom Glavine — so runs should be at a premium. One player in the Boston lineup who's proven he can hit any pitching is Brian Daubach. He toiled in the minor leagues for nine seasons before hitting 21 home runs with the Sox last year. Through 37 games this season, Daubach was batting .324.

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch

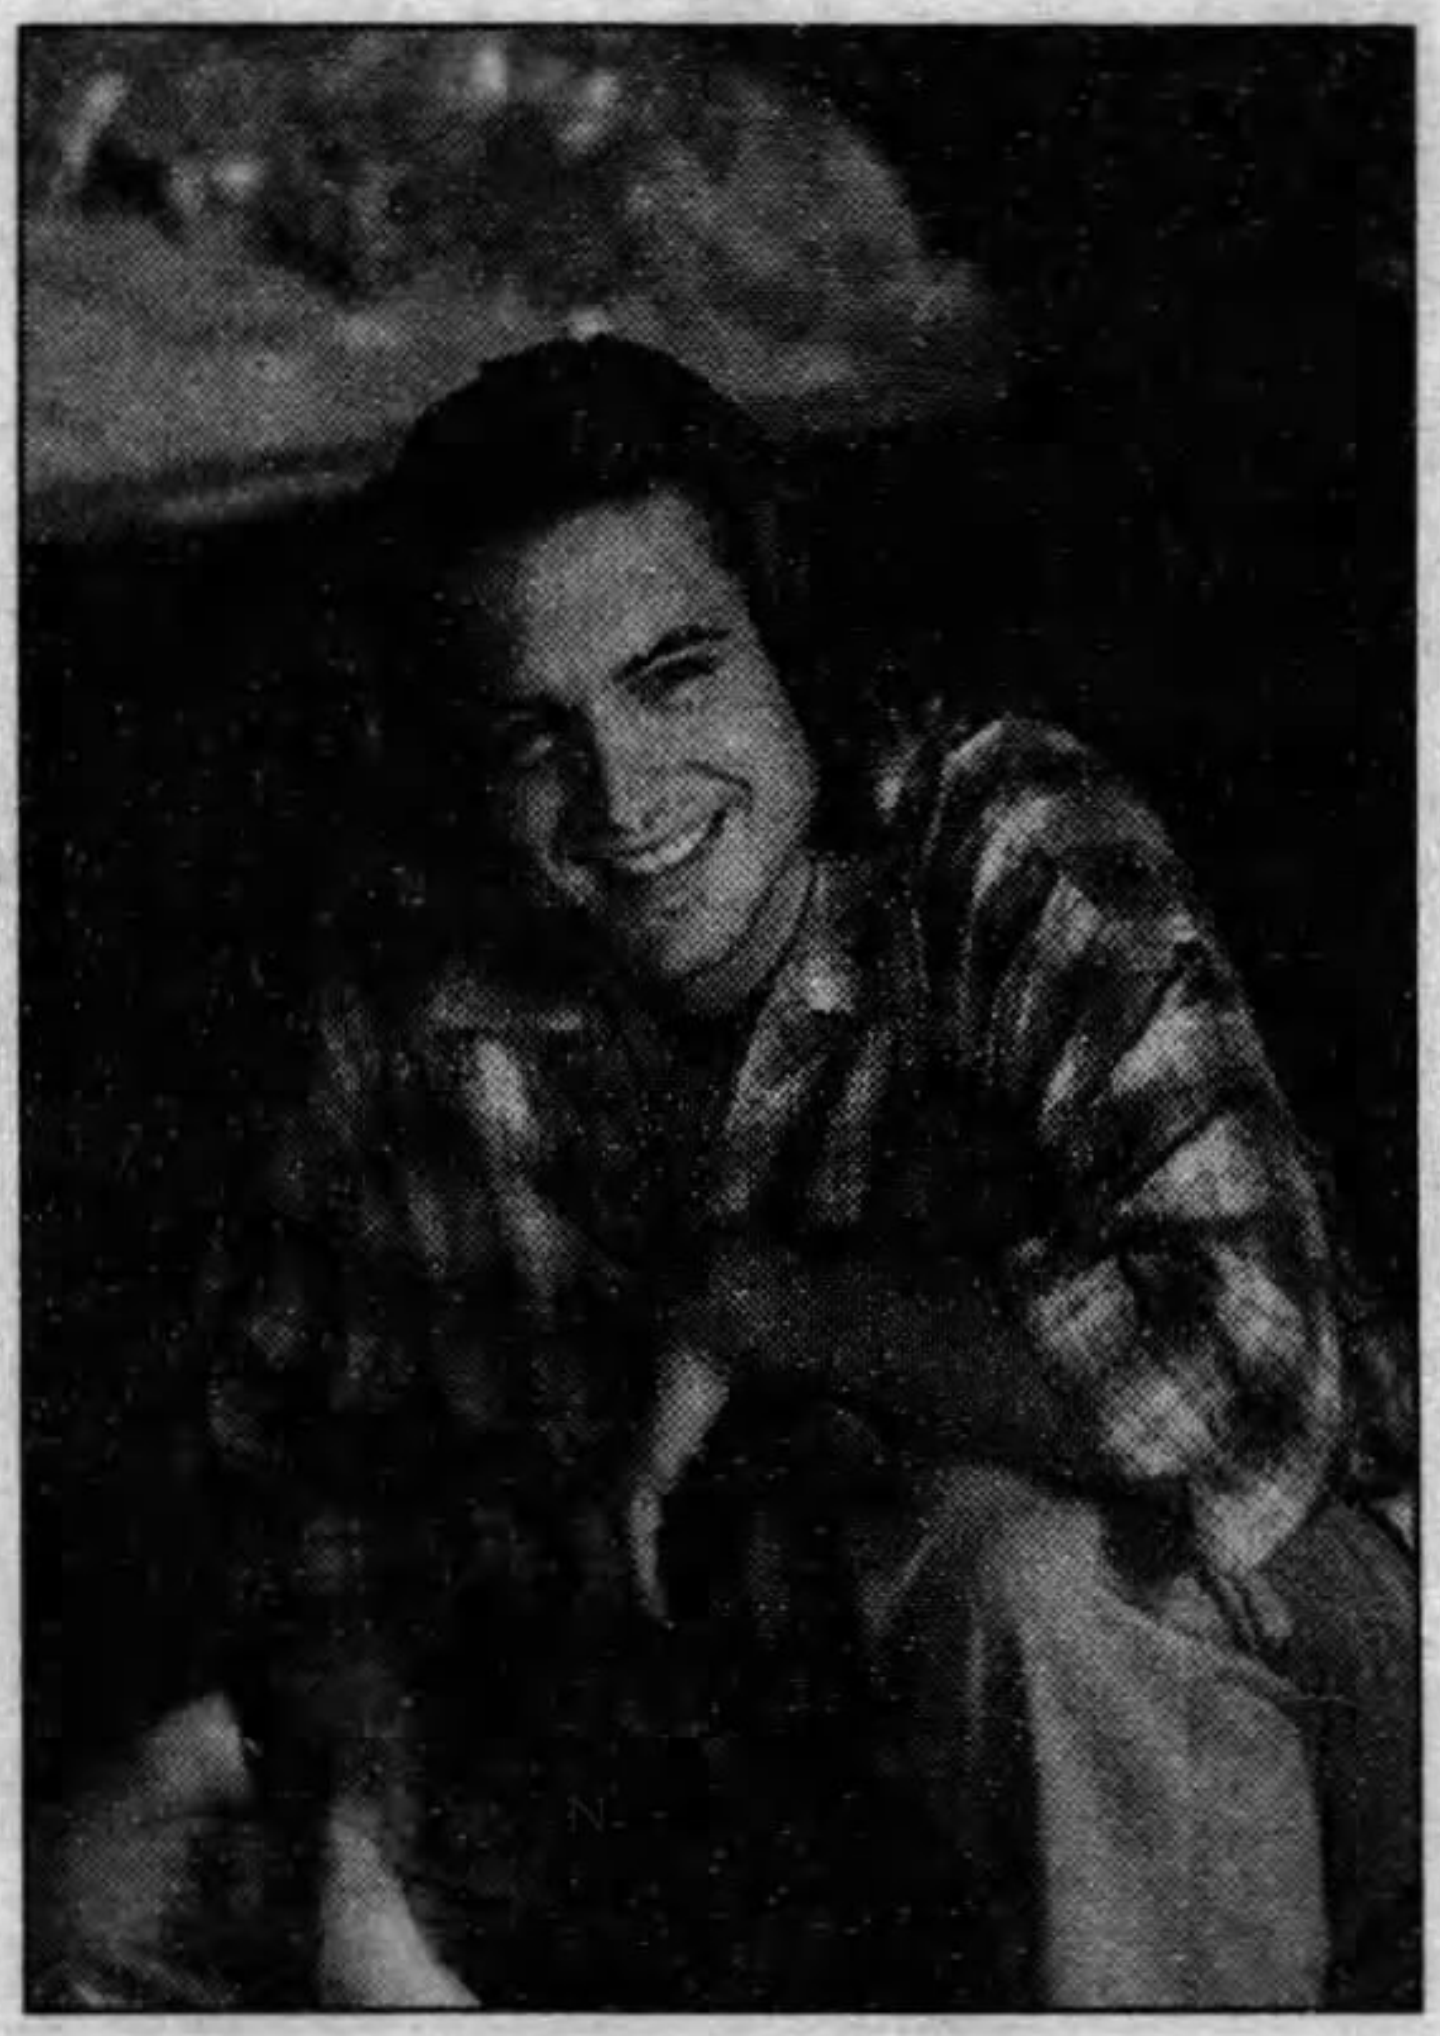
7 p.m. on ABC

Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) turns a magic squirt gun on Mr. Kraft (Martin Mull), hoping its dream-come-true formula will get him to resign. But Harvey (Nate Richert) gets in her line of fire and has a quite different reaction to the magic: superpowers. Only trouble is, they're not very reliable. Caroline Rhea and Beth Broderick also star in "Super Hero."

Invisible Man

7 p.m. on SCIFI

A petty thief gets a chance to go straight by working for a government agency. There are a couple of catches, though: The agency isn't very well-funded, and his job involves becoming invisible. Not incognito, not under cover — invisible. And you can imagine the temptation that puts his larcenous soul in. Vincent Ventresca ("Romy and Michele's High School Reunion") and Paul Ben-Victor (Moe in the recent "Three Stooges" TV movie) star in this tongue-in-cheek new adventure series, which joins the Sci-Fi lineup with a two-hour premiere.



Will Friedle
BOY MEETS WORLD

Boy Meets World

7:30 p.m. on ABC

Is footloose and fancy-free Eric (Will Friedle) ready for life after college? You know, the big, bad world where they expect you to get a (gulp) job? Jack (Matthew Lawrence) doesn't think so, and he has a reality check all made out to his pal: a gig helping him at the student union concession. But the check bounces — big time — when Eric makes an unauthorized loan from the eatery's cash stash.

Investigative Reports

8 p.m. on A&E

"The Secret White House Tapes" brings private presidential recordings out into the open to show how some of America's chief executives, including Franklin D. Roosevelt, John F. Kennedy, Richard Nixon and Ronald Reagan, have dealt with the challenges of the Oval Office.

Horse Racing

3:30 p.m. on ABC

A red bullet pierced the hearts of racing fans clamoring for a Triple Crown winner, but all is not lost for today's Belmont Stakes. The race for the top 3-year-old is officially wide open after Red Bullet shocked everyone except his trainer, Joe Orseno, in winning the Preakness Stakes over Derby winner Fusaichi Pegasus. And, barring last-minute changes, Orseno will have his colt primed for a lung-busting 1 1/2-mile rubber match against Pegasus at Belmont Park.

Movie: I.Q.

But then another gang steals the laser from the original thieves, giving Walker two sets of bad guys to chase down.

Great Books: Crime & Punishment

8 p.m. on TLC

Two new hours highlight an all-day, all-evening marathon of "Great Books" specials. In the first, several scholars compare the alienation of Raskolnikov, the murderous protagonist of Feodor Dostoevski's masterpiece, to that of the Columbine High School killers and Travis Bickle of "Taxi Driver" fame. Next, "Great Books: Malcolm X" looks at the black leader's autobiography, which shook up the American consciousness — black and white — and the struggle for civil rights. Vintage film footage, interviews and re-enactments help recall the man behind the book.

Mad TV

10 p.m. on FOX

Will Sasso does his best Bill Clinton in a parody of Lou Bega's hit "Mambo No. 5," expounding on the attributes of all the ladies named in the lyrics. The show also engages in a little close-to-home ribbing with a spoof on fellow Fox series "Time of Your Life" called "Mistake of Your Life." Brooke Totman plays star Jennifer Love Hewitt. Alex Borstein and Mo Collins also star.

NBC, CBS combat 'Millionaire'

By John Crook

Cover story

NBC and CBS are going heavy on the star power this fall in their crusade to halt ABC's 600-pound gorilla, "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire."

While ABC plays it conservatively with a schedule notable mainly for adding yet a fourth night of Regis Philbin's smash game show, the peacock and eye networks are trotting out familiar faces such as former "Wings" co-stars Tim Daly and Steven Weber; ex-Designing Woman Delta Burke; chic Emmy winner Christine Baranski ("Cybill"); and "Seinfeld" favorite Michael Richards to woo viewers.

NBC programming chiefs Scott Sassa and Garth Ancier took an especially heavy broom to their network's lineup, whisking away underperformers such as "Caroline in the City," "Veronica's Closet," "Jesse," "Stark Raving Mad" and the entire Saturday lineup — "The Others," "The Pretender" and "Profiler" — while adding four sitcoms, three dramas and a new movie night to be shared with XFL football games in late winter.

New NBC dramas include "Deadline" with Oliver Platt ("Bulworth") as a crusading journalist; "Ed," about a New York attorney returning to his Ohio roots; and "Titans," a new Aaron Spelling sudser starring beautiful people Casper Van Dien an Yasmine Bleeth.

Among returning shows, "Will & Grace" has landed the network' most coveted time slot. The ensemble comedy starring Eric McCormack, Debra Messing, Megan Mullally and Sean Hayes is switching places with "Frasier," which moves to Tuesdays.

Is there life after 'ER' for Margulies?

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Pipeline

What does Julianna Margulies have planned now that she has left "ER"? -Megan Coluccio, Seattle.

After all the Angst she went through as nurse Carol Hathaway, Margulies recently told me she would love nothing better than to do a comedy, either onstage or on film.

Before that, though, she can be heard as one of the voices in Disney's new movie "Dinosaur," and she recently signed to star with Anjelica Huston and Joan Allen in a four-hour TNT adaptation of "The Mists of Avalon," a retelling of the Camelot legend.

What can you tell me about "Dr. Drew" of "Loveline"? He really impresses me, the way he helps people seek medical advice for serious problems. -Mary Schwartz, Mason City, Iowa.

For more than 17 years, Dr. Drew Pinsky, 41, has been co-host of "Loveline," the radio call-in show and the more recent MTV series of the same name.

A native of Pasadena, Calif., he was a high-school football captain and student body president before going on to Amherst College.

He earned his medical degree from the University of Southern California School of Medicine.

After completing his residency in internal medicine at USC County Hospital, he was named chief resident at Pasadena's Huntington Hospital.

Now the medical director for the Department of Chemical Dependency Services at another Pasadena hospital, he also runs a private practice and recently was named clinical assistant professor of pediatrics at Los Angeles Children's Hospital.

Last October, Pinsky launched drdrew.com, a Website offering health and relationship advice, chat areas, polls, and more.

Pinsky and his wife, Susan, are the parents of 7-year-old triplets.

Sunday's Best Bets

King of the Hill

6:30 p.m. on FOX

Bobby's pet raccoon has taken up residence in the garage, and Dale (voice of Johnny Hardwick) graciously offers to get it out. But in the process, the varmint scratches him. Fearing he's gotten rabies, he heads for the woods, where something weirder awaits: mushrooms that make him have hallucinations. It's a long, strange trip until Hank and Bobby (voices of Mike Judge and Pamela Segall) catch up with him.

In the Company of Horses

7 p.m. on A&E

Whether you ride them in the ring or on the range, bet on them or simply admire their beauty, you'll find something to enjoy in this profile of man's other best friend, the horse. In addition to going behind the scenes at a racetrack, a Thoroughbred auction and a mounted police unit, this two-hour special has segments on horses in the cattle and logging industries, a wild horse sanctuary, and real-life "horse whisperer" Monty Roberts. There's also a fascinating piece on the Icelandic horse, virtually unchanged since the ninth century.

Movie: On Hostile Ground

7 p.m. on TBS

It's Mardi Gras in New Orleans, but Mother Nature is about to put a stop to the celebration. An enormous sinkhole is threatening to swallow the city, party and all, unless geologist Matt Andrews can find a way to stop it.

Bobby
KING OF THE HILL

Movie: Journey of the Heart

8 p.m. on CBS

Cybill Shepherd stars as the single mother of a blind, autistic boy (Chris Demetral) who is musically gifted. Moving her family to Boston to be near a special school for the blind, she receives encouragement from a music teacher (Stephen Lang) when the school turns down her request for admission. Kay Lenz also stars in this heartwarming drama from 1997.

The Practice

9 p.m. on ABC

Evidence that the man who stabbed Lindsay (Kelli Williams) has broken into the law firm's offices has everyone terrified. Ellenor (Camryn Manheim) follows Lindsay's lead and buys a gun, then moves in with Helen (Lara Flynn Boyle). The revelation that Lindsay owns an illegal handgun upsets Bobby (Dylan McDermott), leading to a cathartic confrontation. But a bigger surprise awaits Ellenor: Lindsay's assailant is very close to home. And speaking of surprises, Judge Kittleson (Holland Taylor) has a revealing one for Jimmy (Michael Badalucco) in "Loser's Keepers."

Talk the Talk

Regis Philbin rules the ratings

By Lorri Antosz Benson
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

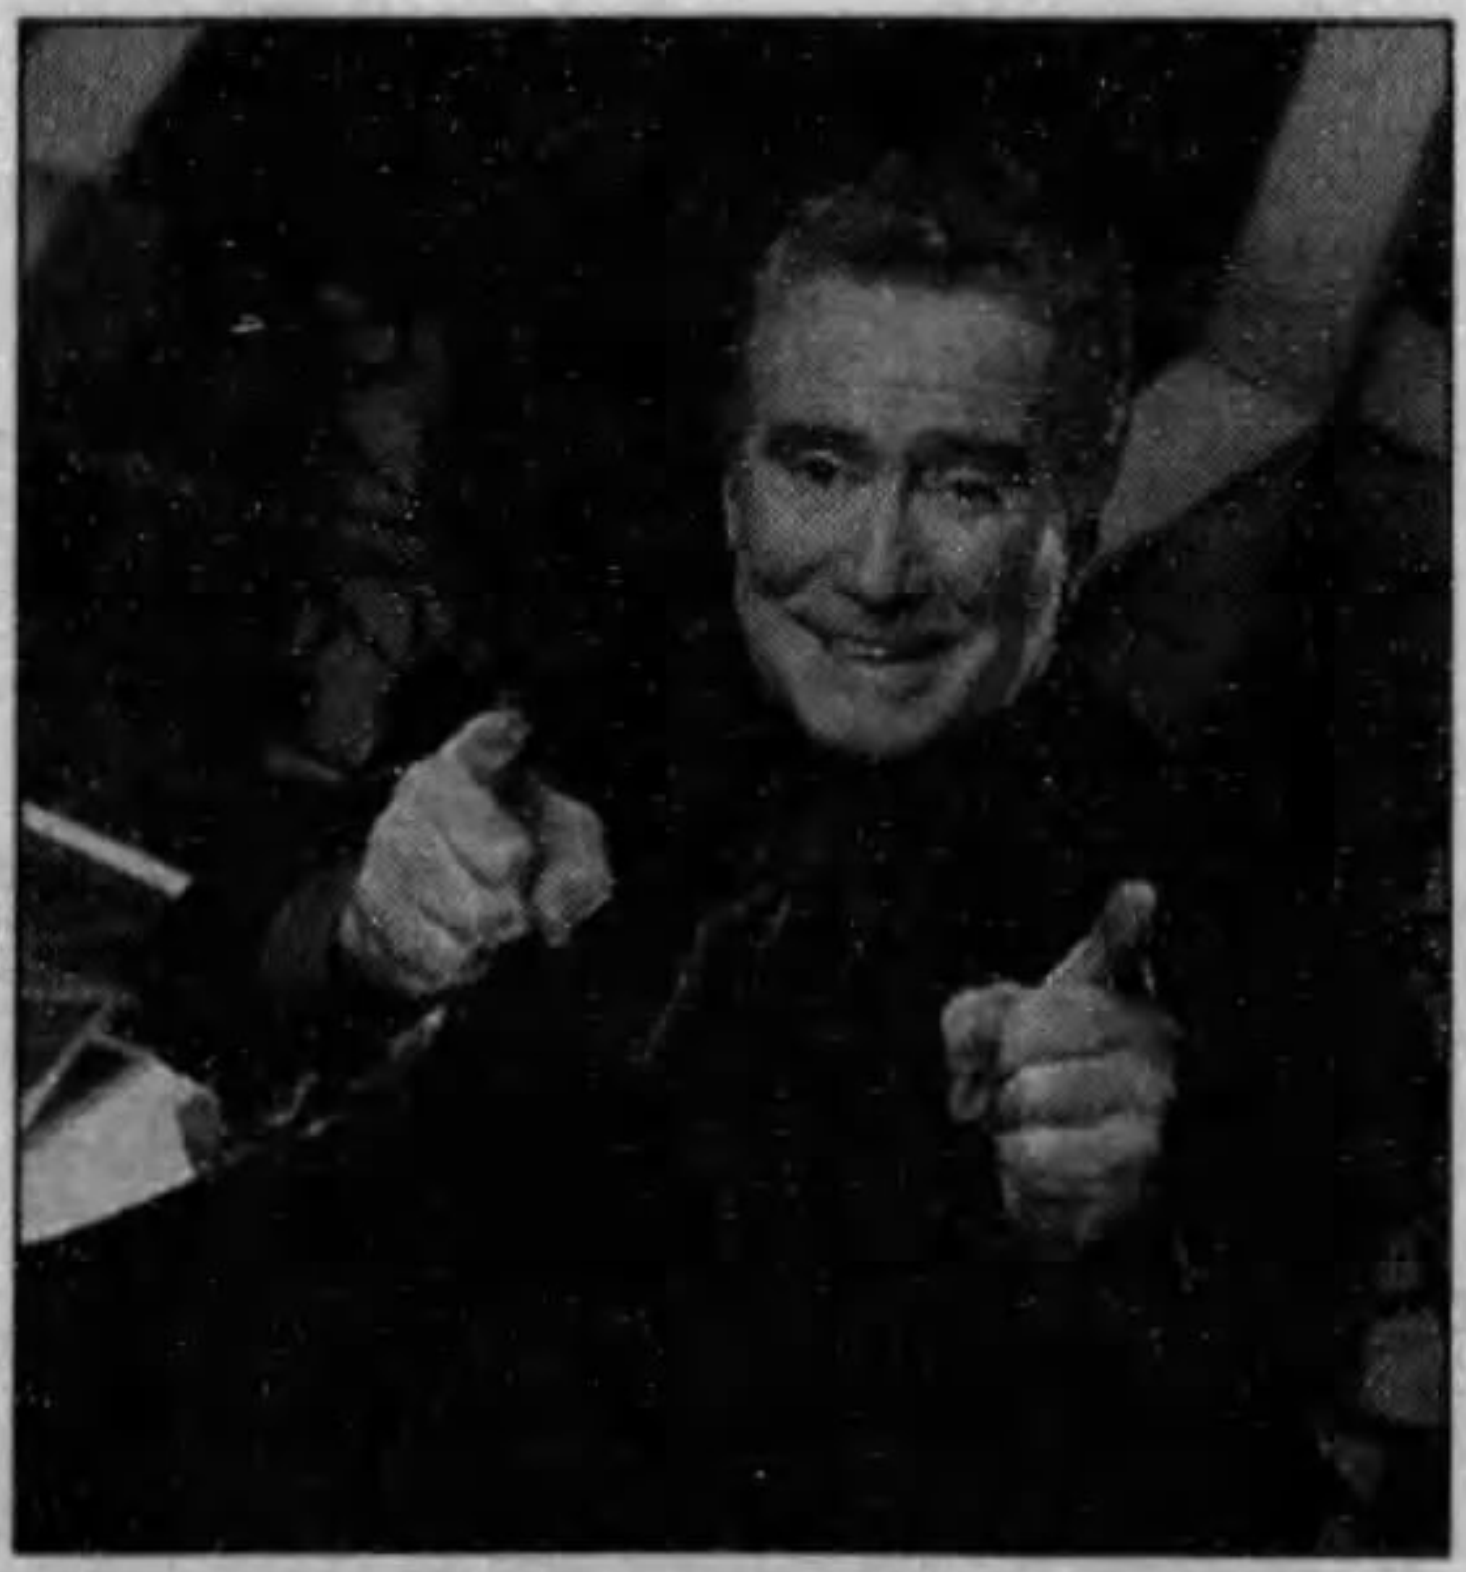
May was a strange ratings period for talk shows. At the month's onset, some talkers took a major dive, with shows such as "Jerry Springer" and "Sally Jessy Raphael" suffering their lowest numbers in years. Then a week later, the whole genre perked up, with ratings increasing across the board.

But none of the increases are enough to merit top billing over the really big story in the talk show world these days: Regis Philbin. He's feeling like "king of the world" as "Millionaire" mania hits an all-time high. Although his daytime talker with Kathie Lee Gifford is rolling along just fine, it's his prime-time bonanza, "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire," that's handing him the jackpot.

Being touted as the man who single-handedly saved ABC — a prediction he made 10 months ago — Philbin can do no wrong as far as the network is concerned. Last month's celebrity version of "Millionaire" brought in no fewer than 35 million viewers on the first night and even more two nights later. Consistent ratings like this are almost unheard of, except for certain sporting events.

Adding to the fun is the show's enhanced TV element, allowing viewers to play along with TV contestants via the Internet. Online players are given the same questions and get points for correct answers. Viewers can watch the show and play the game while chatting or competing with others online.

All this success has been the catalyst for some interesting decisions by Philbin's colleagues and competitors. ABC's Diane Sawyer and Charlie Gibson announced that aside from remaining on "Good Morning America" for another season, they will co-host the magazine show "Prime Time Thursday." Guess what the network promised them. That's right; they'll follow "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire." That's a 30-million-plus viewer carrot to dangle in front of the hosts.



Regis Philbin

Insiders say Barbara Walters wanted that carrot dangled before her Friday "20/20" to help boost viewership, but so far that's not happening. But ABC is adding one more night — Wednesday — to its current Sunday, Tuesday and Thursday "Millionaire" meal ticket.

Monday's Best Bets

That '70s Show

7 p.m. on FOX

In "Kitty and Eric's Night Out," Eric (Topher Grace) dreads the prospect of going to the movies with his mom (Debra Jo Rupp), especially "Annie Hall," with all its talk of (gasp!) sex. But she insists, and he's pleasantly surprised to discover he's actually enjoying himself. Jackie (Mila Kunis) gets an attack of jealousy when Fez (Wilmer Valderrama) hooks up with a girl. Danny Masterson also stars.

7th Heaven

7 p.m. on WB

Eric (Stephen Collins) takes some time off and gets in touch with his inner child, giving Simon (David Gallagher) a chance to commune with his inner adult. He tries valiantly to take over as man of the house while Dad's gone, but Matt (Barry Watson) keeps getting in the way. He needn't worry; Matt has other things on his mind, namely the growing attraction between his roomie and his girlfriend (Chaz Lamar Shepherd, Maureen Flannigan). Beverley Mitchell and Jessica Biel also star in "Life Is Too Beautiful."

Becker

7:30 p.m. on CBS

Alex Desert
BECKER

Making up is hard to do for Jake (Alex Desert), whose ex-friend Chris (guest star Cress Williams) comes seeking his forgiveness for the drunken-driving accident that blinded him. Chris is sincere, but Jake, try though he might, can't let go of his resentment. Ted Danson and Terry Farrell also star in "Blind Curve."

Everybody Loves Raymond

8 p.m. on CBS

Ray (Ray Romano) inadvertently gives away Ally's (Madylin Sweeten) favorite Hackidu trading card, which turns out to be worth big bucks. He's gotta spend 'em all if he wants to get back in his daughter's good graces. But first he has to convince a reluctant comic-book store owner (guest star Paul Reubens) to sell him the card. David Hunt, real-life husband of co-star Patricia Heaton, also guest stars in "The Adventures of Hackidu."

Humans — Who Are We?

8 p.m. on DISC

This two-hour special on human evolution gets up close and personal with our prehistoric ancestors, using computer graphics to get inside the bodies and brains of Neanderthal man, Homo erectus and Australopithecus, who's believed to have started the trend of walking upright in order to see predators coming. Experts explain how these early species evolved the traits that make us what we are today.

Tuesday's Best Bets

AFI 100 Years, 100 Laughs

7 p.m. on CBS

What's the funniest movie you ever saw? See how your choices agree with those of the American Film Institute, which asked 1,800 industry insiders to pick the 100 funniest films of all time. The results are counted down in this third special celebrating a century of cinema. Drew Barrymore hosts the three-hour program, which includes interviews with Billy Crystal, Mel Brooks, Mickey Rooney and other famous faces.

Suddenly Susan

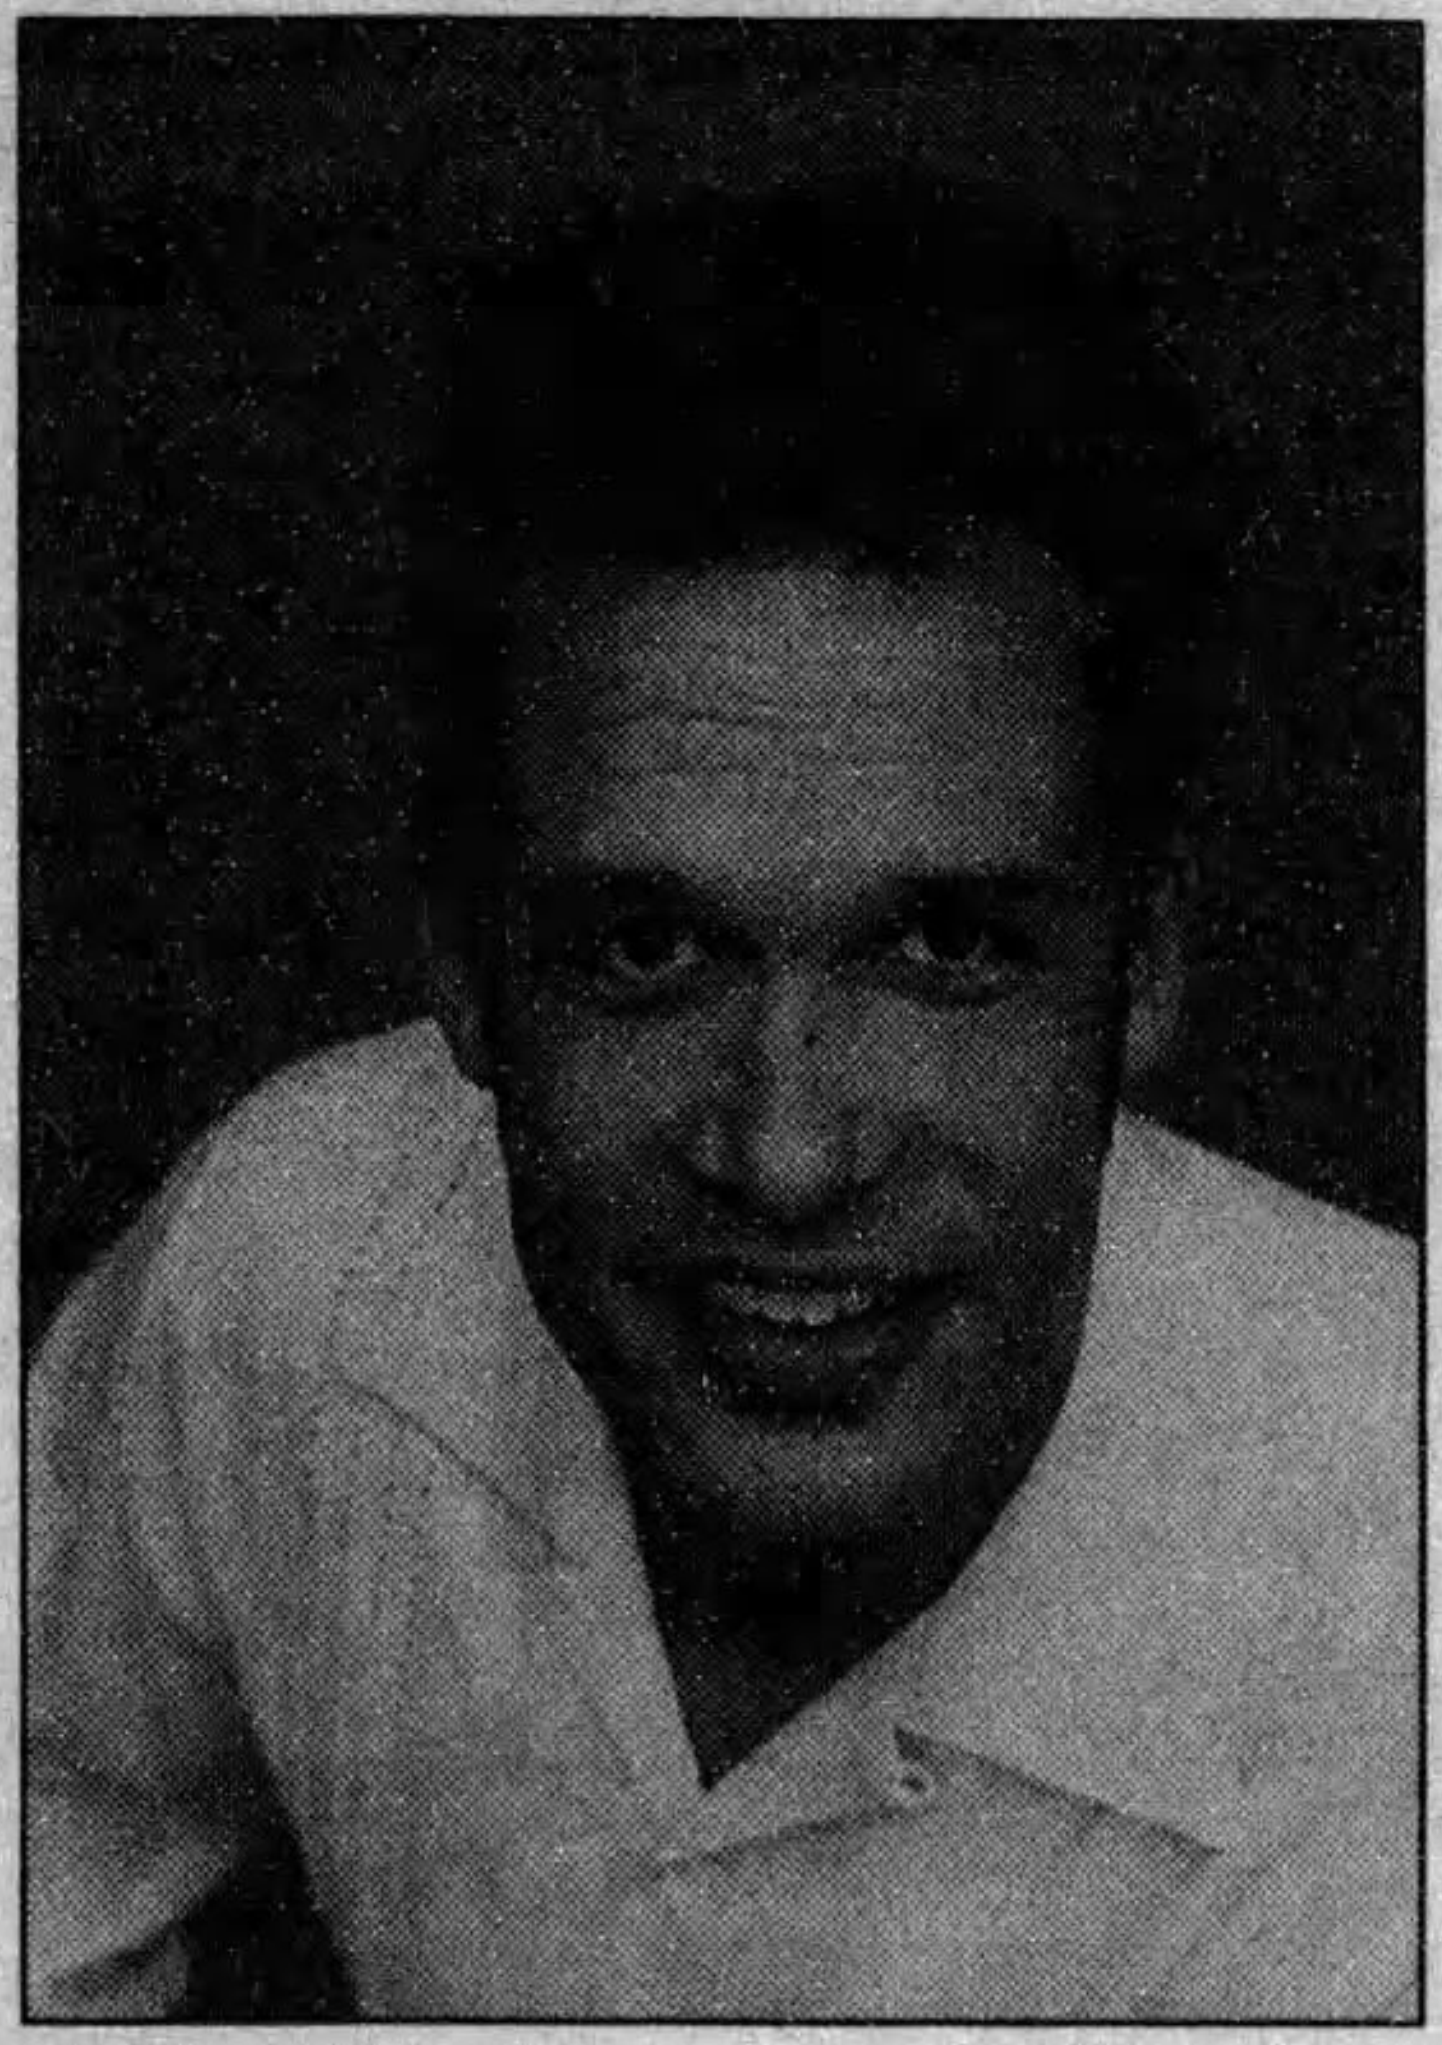
7 p.m. on NBC

Her worry about a possible pregnancy gives way to relief for Susan (Brooke Shields) when Oliver (Rob Estes) shows signs of getting serious, suggesting that they live together. But that suggestion is followed by a new revelation that has Susan's head spinning. The news is all good for Ian (Eric Idle). His ex-wife (guest star Ellen Greene) is getting married again, and a new hubby for her means more money for him. Kathy Griffin also stars.

Burt Lancaster

7 p.m. on AMC

He started out in the circus and got the acting bug in the Army. From there it was all uphill for Burt Lancaster, who became an overnight star in 1946's "The Killers." During his long career, he played Wyatt Earp, P.T. Barnum, Moses, a pope and countless tough guys, earning four Oscar nominations and winning one — for his unforgettable portrayal of an unscrupulous evangelist in "Elmer Gantry." This profile remembers the larger-than-life star through clips from his films and interviews with those who knew him. A screening of his turn as Earp in 1957's "Gunfight at the O.K. Corral" follows.



Diedrich Bader
DREW CAREY

The Drew Carey Show

8:30 p.m. on ABC

A bombshell is dropped on Oswald (Diedrich Bader): He's a father. But he and his friends aren't so sure that the young fellow who has suddenly shown up in his life is actually the fruit of his loins. Sonny is convinced that Oswald's the man, but let's just say Oswald's not the man he resembles. Drew Carey, Ryan Stiles and Christa Miller also star in "Oswald's Son."

The Real World

9 p.m. on MTV

Living with six strangers isn't easy, even in the Big Easy. New Orleans is the setting for the latest edition of the reality series. The cameras crank as seven young adults take up residence together, produce a cable-access TV show, and get to know one another. A trip abroad is also on the agenda.

Wednesday's Best Bets

Norm

7:30 p.m. on ABC

Laurie (Laurie Metcalf) puts her money where her mouth is and her hat in the ring. Instead of merely complaining about Councilman Krantz (Michael Gross), she decides to run against him. Norm (Norm Macdonald) does what he can to help when he's not distracted by his relationship with Shelly (Faith Ford), which is moving to the next level. Ian Gomez also stars in "Laurie Runs for Office."

Movie: Addicted to Love

8 p.m. on CBS

After following his girlfriend to New York, where she dumps him for a French chef, an astronomer (Matthew Broderick) meets up with the chef's ex (Meg Ryan). She joins him in spying on the lovebirds and concocting elaborate plots to get back at them — from planting evidence of an affair to planting bugs in the chef's restaurant.

Time of Your Life

8 p.m. on FOX

"The Time They Got E-Rotic" opens Fox's much-hyped "Summer of Love," a showcase for previously unseen episodes of Jennifer Love Hewitt's series. An attempt to help Spencer (Patrick Fabian) and his sweetie resolve their troubles lands Sarah (Hewitt) in an online bind, while Romy (Jennifer Garner) deals with an unwelcome intruder in her life — a visiting high-school friend (Jolie Jenkins).

Felicity

8 p.m. on WB

Romantic regrets and plain old loneliness are giving Felicity (Keri Russell) the blues. A spacey customer at the coffee shop suggests she visit The Clinic, a mysterious facility that promises to cure broken hearts. But the treatment is, shall we say, unconventional. And Felicity discovers to her horror that some of her friends have already been there. If this surreal black-and-white episode reminds you of "The Twilight Zone," there's a good reason: Its director is Lamont Johnson, who directed several episodes of that classic series.

Movie: Benny & Joon

8 p.m. on TMC

Johnny Depp, that master of misfit roles ("Edward Scissorhands," "Ed Wood"), earned a Golden Globe nomination for his portrayal of Sam, a sane but odd young man who lives in his own little world and worships the great silent-screen comics. He hooks up with Joon (Mary Stuart Masterson), a schizophrenic artist, through her brother, Benny (Aidan Quinn), who objects strenuously to their budding romance. Can love conquer all — including Benny's protective instincts and the disapproval of Joon's doctor (CCH Pounder) — for this oddest of odd couples? Julianne Moore and Oliver Platt also star.

Thursday's Best Bets

Movie: Fear

7 p.m. on FOX

Teen-age Nicole's new boyfriend, David, is a 20-something hunk with an irresistible bad-boy air. Her father sees what she can't: that David is no harmless rogue, but a controlling bully who'll soon cross the line into psycho-stalker mode. Mark Wahlberg ("Boogie Nights"), Reese Witherspoon ("Cruel Intentions") and William Petersen ("The Rat Pack") star in this "Fatal Attraction"-esque 1996 thriller.

TNN Music Awards

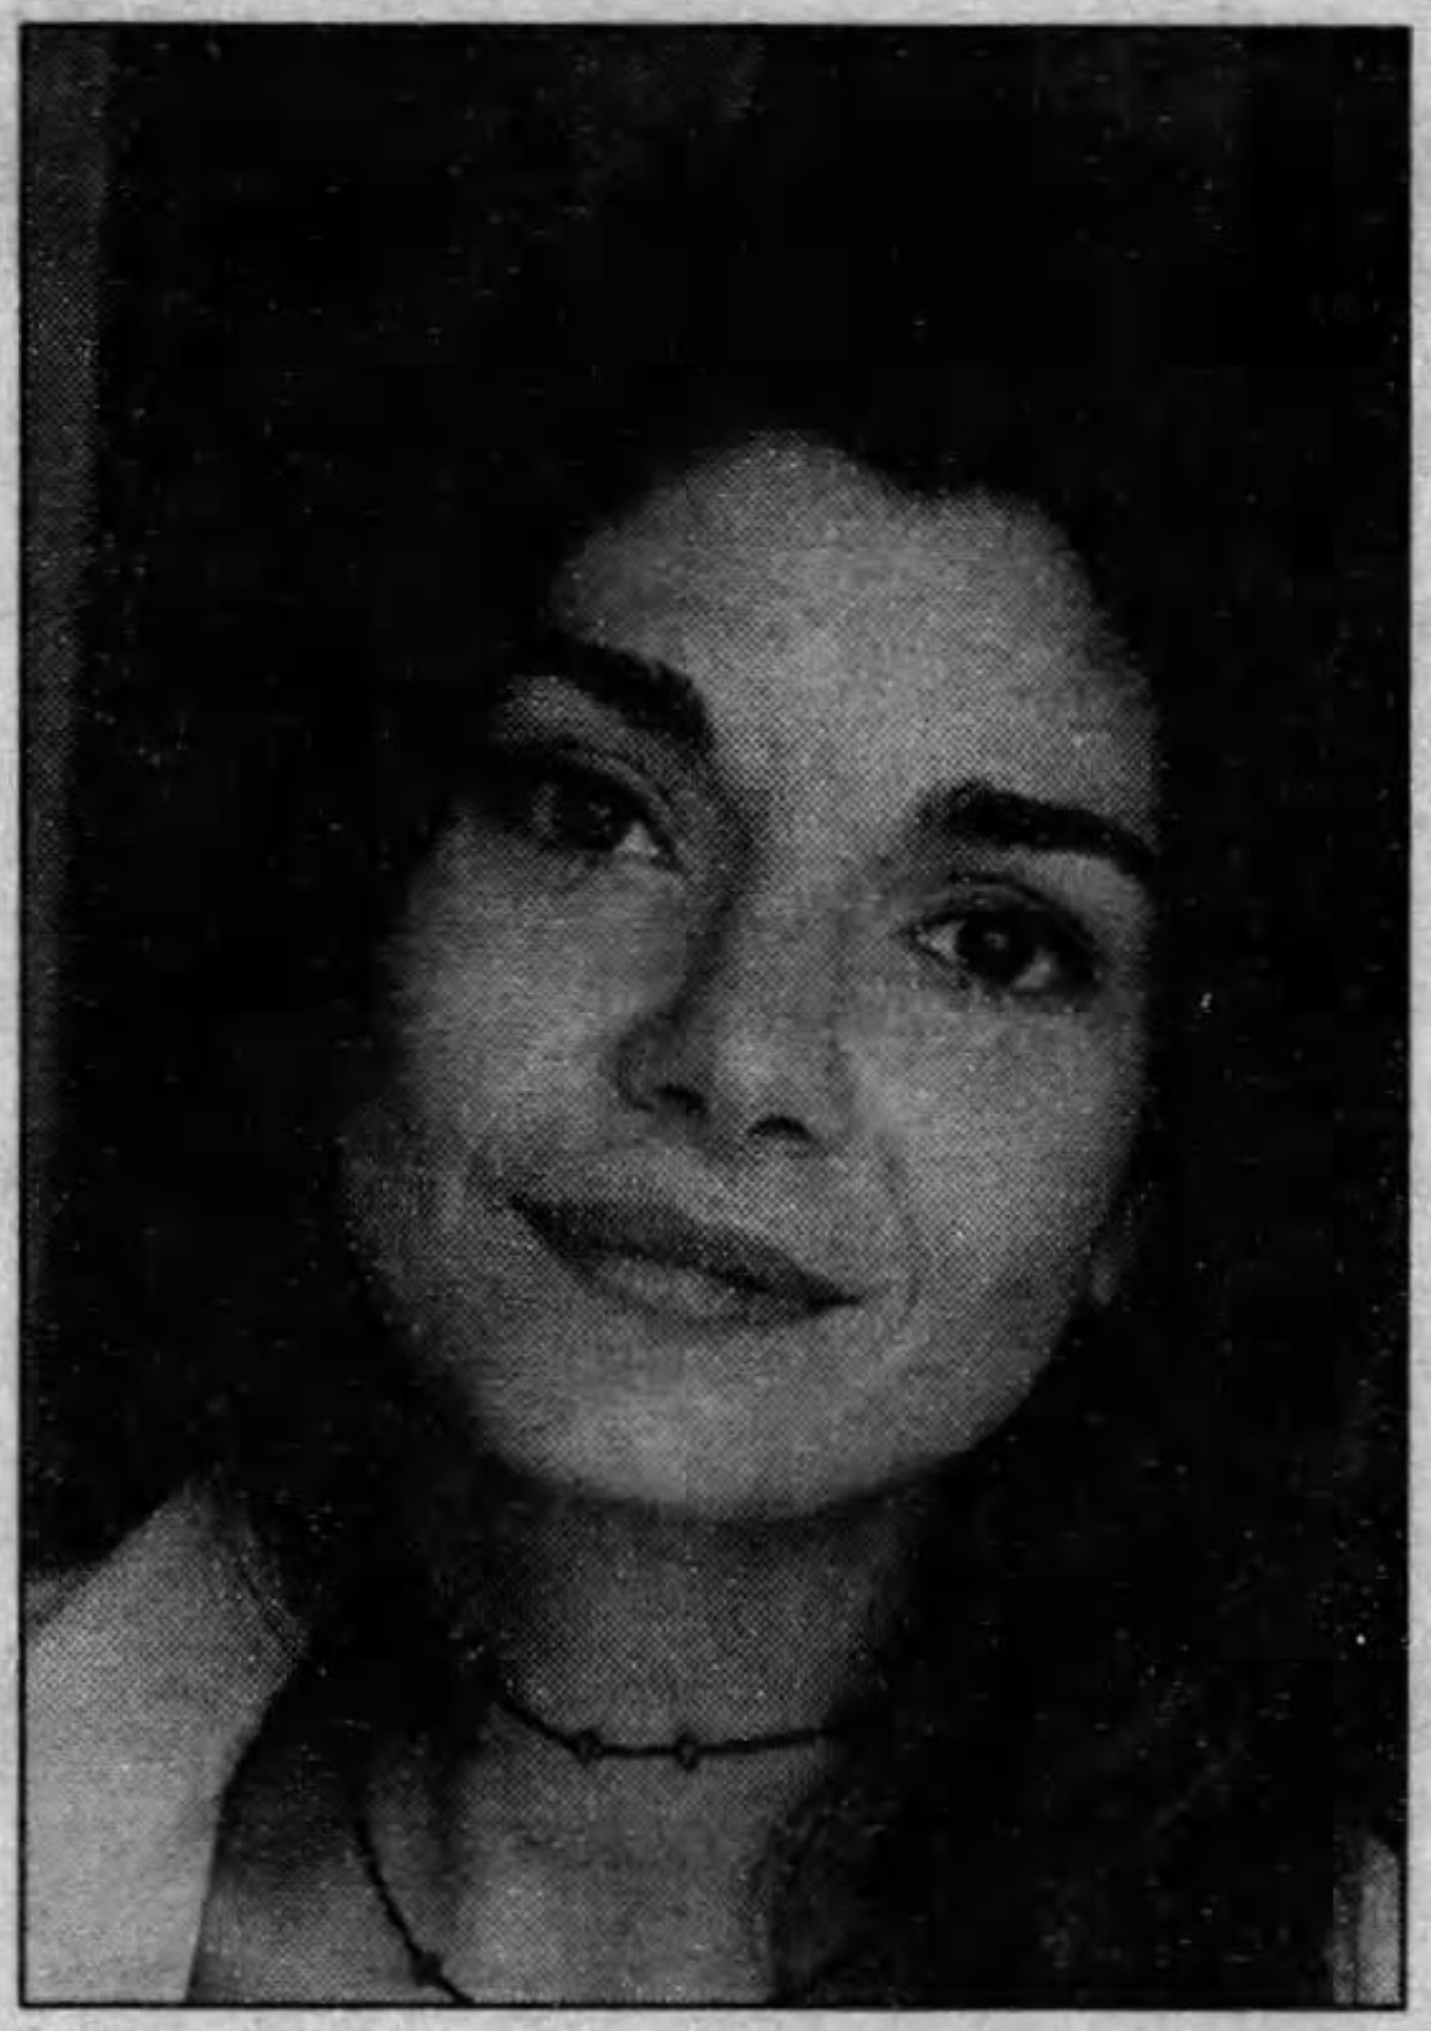
7 p.m. on NASH

Singing spouses Faith Hill and Tim McGraw are in competition at this year's edition of the country music awards ceremony. Both are nominated for the coveted entertainer of the year prize and the Impact Award for raising country music's profile. Even if they both lose, they're up for their share of other prizes, including male and female entertainers of the year and collaborative event of the year for the duet "Let's Make Love." Jeff Foxworthy hosts the event, which includes performances by Hill, Martina McBride, Kenny Rogers, Clint and Lisa Hartman Black, and Alan Jackson, among others.

Just Shoot Me

8:30 p.m. on NBC

Jack (George Segal) figured he was safe concocting a story for his autobiography about beating up Robert Conrad. But he didn't count on Maya (Laura San Giacomo) belonging to the same gym as the strapping actor. Next thing he knows, the man himself is in his office.



Laura San Giacomo
JUST SHOOT ME

ER

9 p.m. on NBC

Abby Lockhart (Maura Tierney), the nurse who helped deliver Hathaway's (Julianna Margulies) babies, is in medical school now and working with the ER crew. Her first day is a baptism by fire, as she's bitten by one patient and misdiagnoses another. The other med student in the bunch, Lucy (Kellie Martin), tries to make a dying man comfortable, while Dr. Corday deals with a different kind of uncomfortable situation: a visit from her mom.

Legends

9 p.m. on VH1

"Neil Young" is a treat for fans of the prolific singer-songwriter, who speaks candidly about his eventful personal and professional lives, including such tough stuff as his epilepsy, his children's disabilities and his conflicts with bandmates. Some of them — including David Crosby, Stephen Stills and Graham Nash — also weigh in during the hour, which has lots of rare performance clips. Want more? Stay tuned for "Neil Young Silver & Gold Concert," a special taped in Texas during Young's 1999 tour.

Friday's Best Bets

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch

7 p.m. on ABC

Dick Van Dyke guest stars in "Welcome Back, Duke" as Salem's (voice of Nick Bakay) old pal, a former con man trying to go straight. He's out of practice in the magic department, a situation that proves troublesome when he tries to help Sabrina (Melissa Joan Hart) polish her dancing skills to get a part in the school musical.

Beyond Belief: Fact or Fiction?

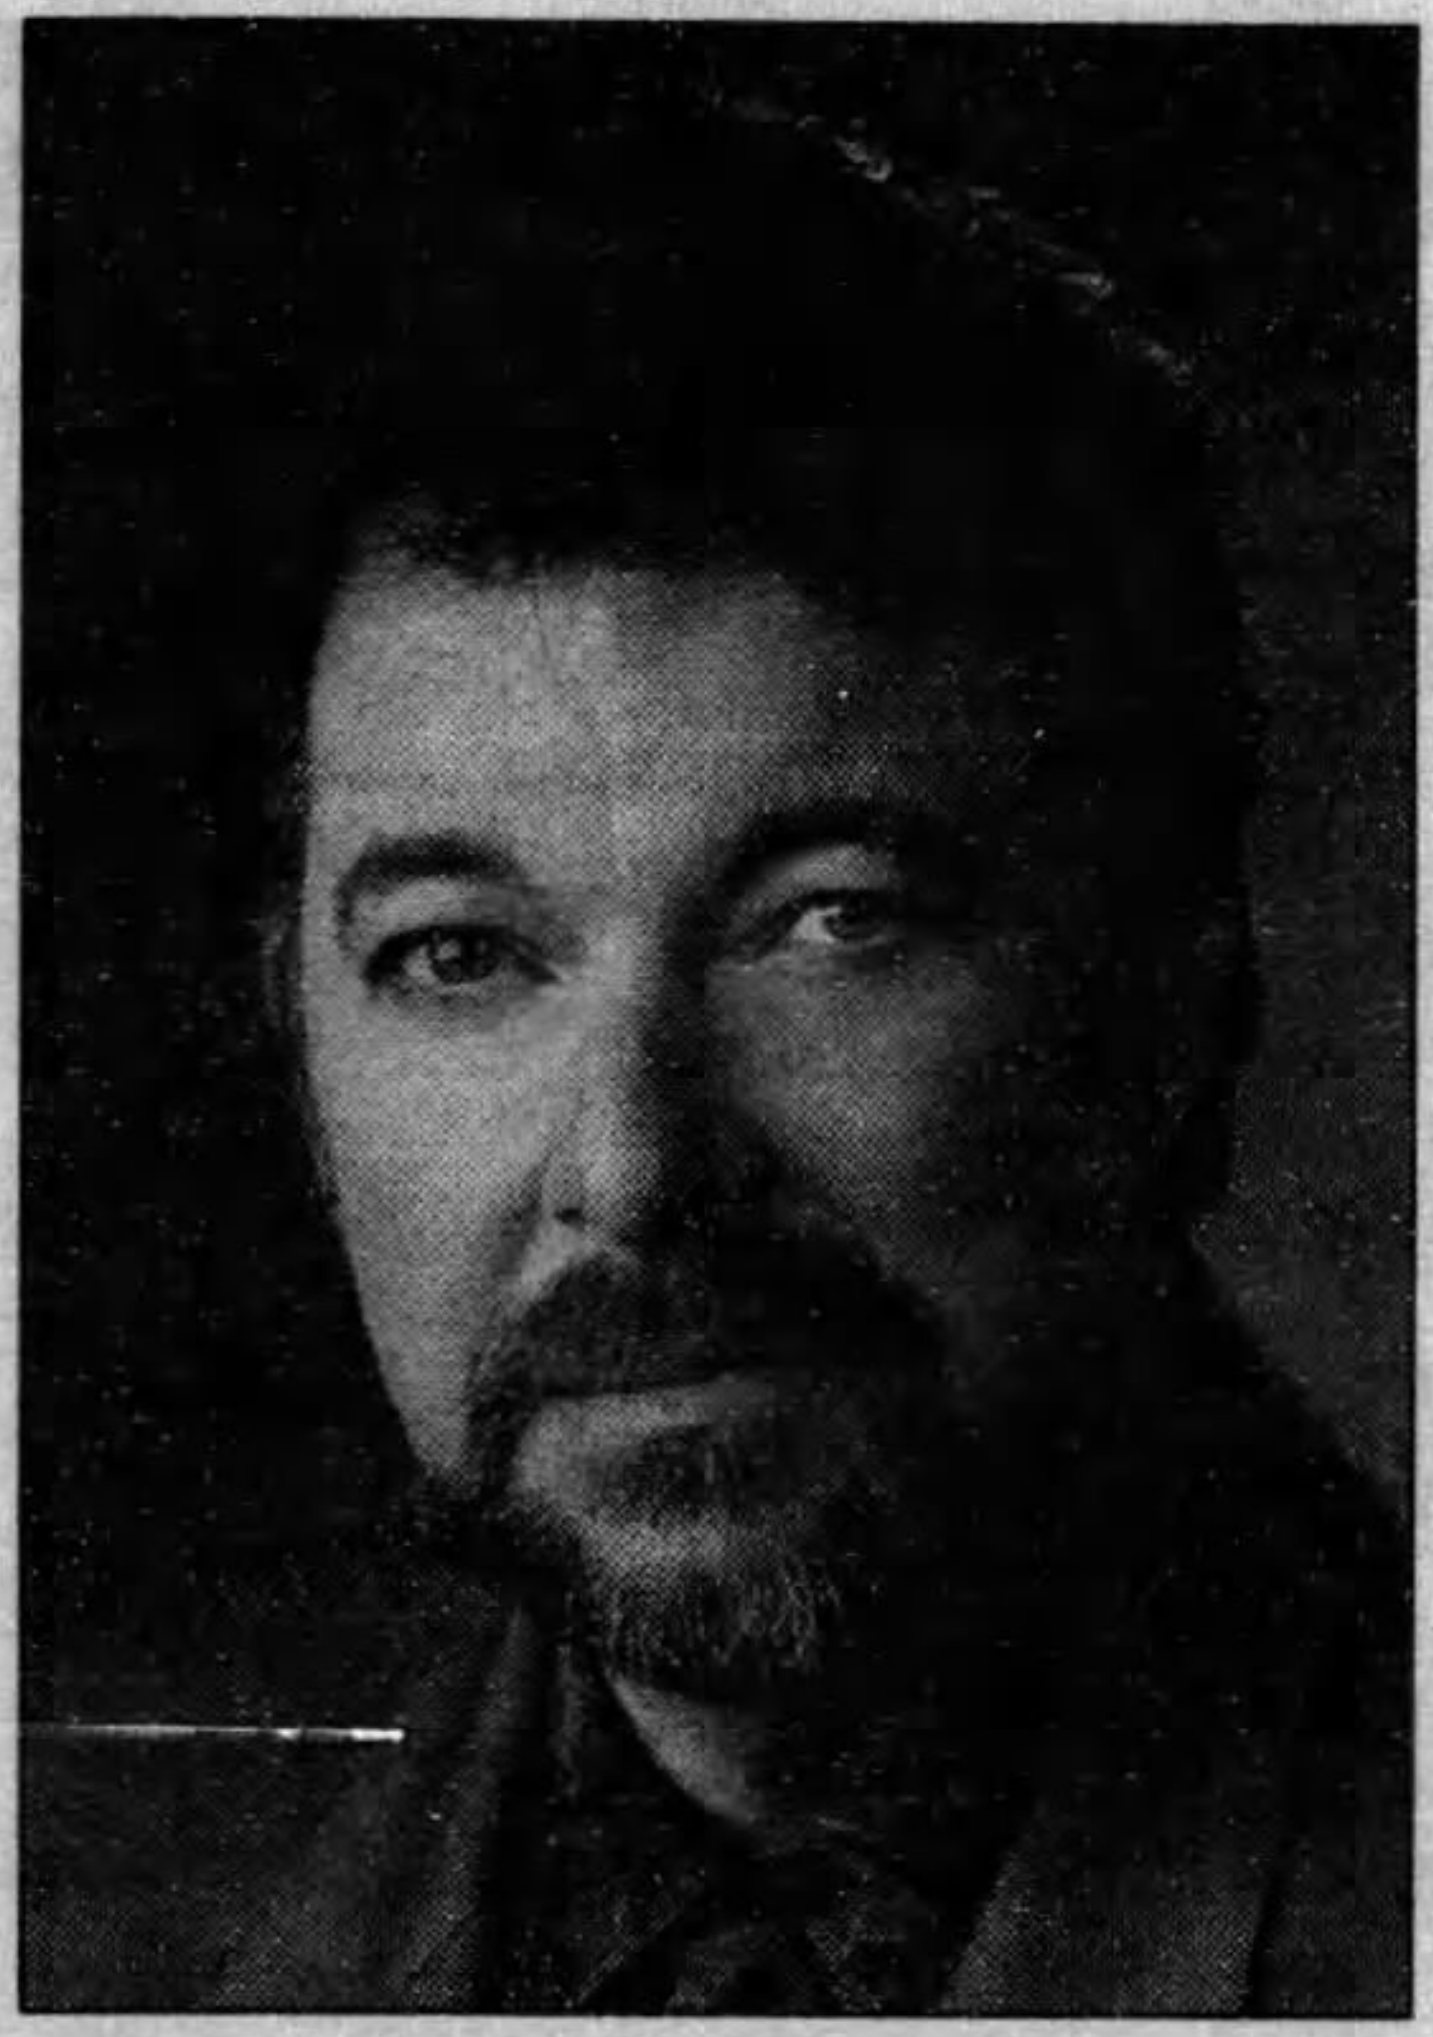
7 p.m. on FOX

As a recent state lottery ad campaign put it, "all you need is a dollar and a dream." For a destitute widow and her daughter, the latter was enough. Host Jonathan Frakes explains how the pair, facing homelessness, found financial salvation in a dream. In another story, a man has visions of a murder after getting a transfusion. Too weird to be true? Too strange to be fiction? You be the judge.

Movie: The Birds

7 p.m. on AMC

A socialite smitten with a handsome lawyer comes to his seaside hometown bearing birds — a pair of pets for his kid sister's birthday. She needn't have bothered; this town has more birds than it can handle, and they don't know the meaning of the term "feathered friends." Tippi Hedren, Rod Taylor and Jessica Tandy star in this 1963 horror classic from Alfred Hitchcock, whose movies are the focus of AMC's Film Preservation Festival.



Jonathan Frakes
BEYOND BELIEF: FACT OR FICTION

Movie: Free Enterprise

7 p.m. on MAX

Two young men (Eric McCormack, Rafer Weigel) with a "Star Trek" obsession get the shock of their lives when they meet William Shatner in the flesh. The artist formerly known as Capt. Kirk is an aging loser who latches onto them in the mistaken belief they're in show business. He appeals to them to produce his pet project: a musical version of Shakespeare's "Julius Caesar" with him in all the roles.

Boy Meets World

7:30 p.m. on ABC

Cory and Topanga (Ben Savage, Danielle Fishel) are dying for a chance to ditch their dingy apartment for a real home. But it's impossible without help from Alan and Amy (William Russ, Betsy Randle), and they're not biting. Why? That's a question not only the newlyweds, but also their real estate agent (guest star Jo Anne Worley) would like an answer to. Angela and Shawn have no complaints about their own living arrangements; they're absolutely ecstatic to be roomies.

Saturday's Best Bets

Boxing

4 p.m. on ABC

WBC lightweight champion Stevie Johnston defends his title against Jose Luis Castillo in a scheduled 12-round bout. Johnston (30-1, 15 KOs) is undefeated in four previous title defenses, but this time he faces a more experienced fighter in Castillo, who enters the ring with a 40-4 record and 37 KOs. Al Michaels calls the blow by blow. Also featured is an interview with Oscar De La Hoya, who battles Shane Mosley on Saturday night.

Even Stevens

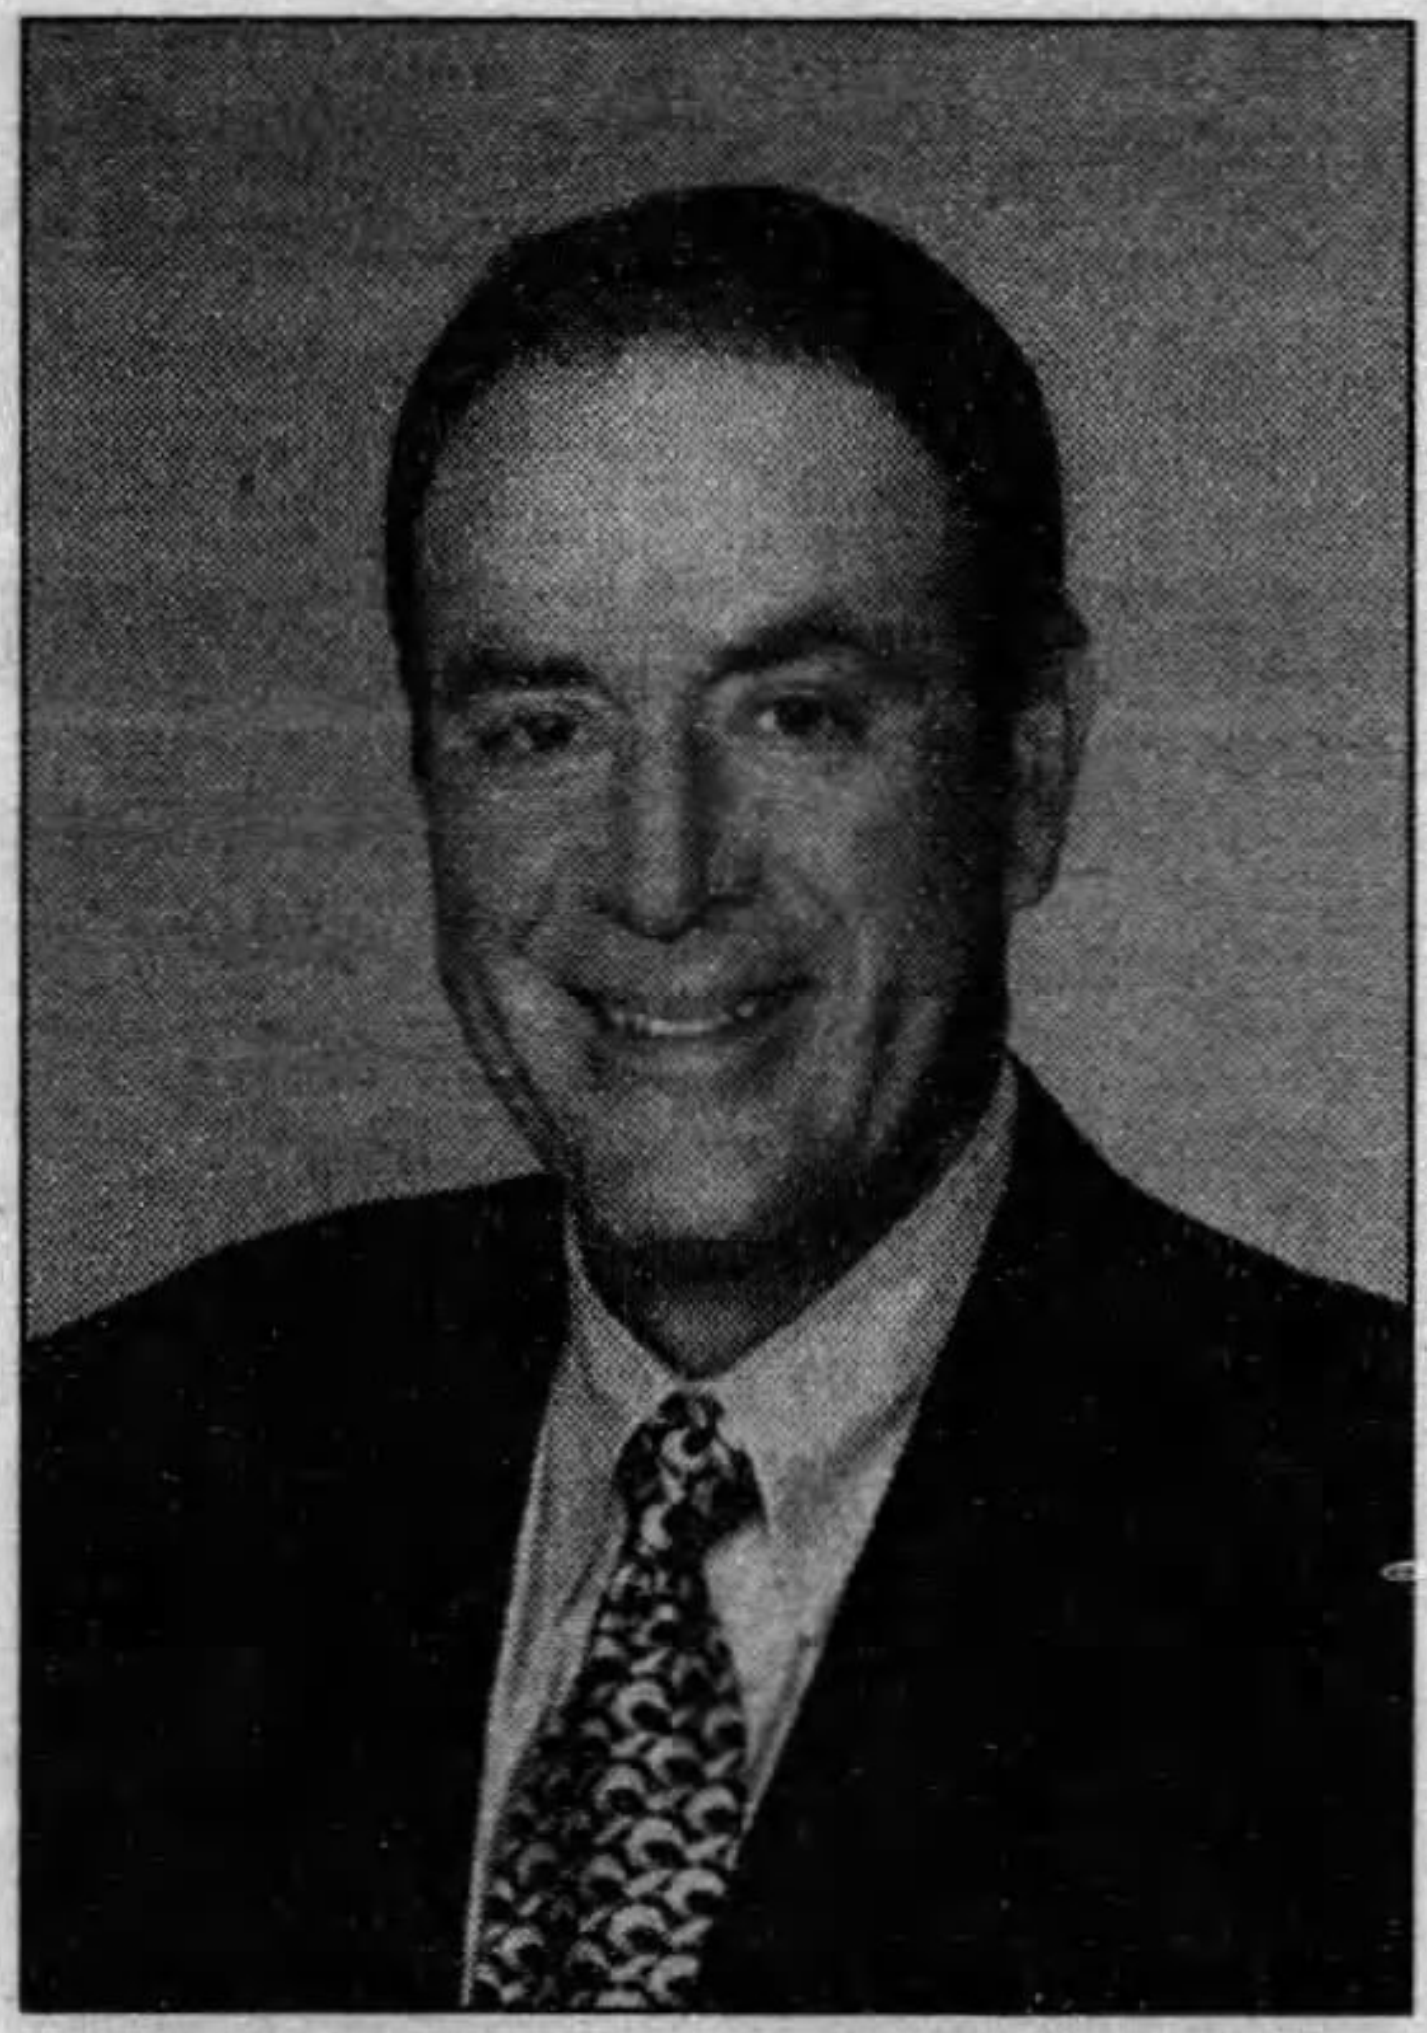
4:30 p.m. on DISN

Young Louis Stevens has a hard act to follow. A high-powered lawyer and a state senator for parents, a star athlete for a big brother, and Miss Perfect for a sister. But this resourceful middle schooler has found his own way to stand out: Be a wild and crazy guy, much to sister Ren's constant embarrassment. Sharp newcomer Shia La Beouf (a recent "ER" guest star) plays Louis in this kid-friendly new sitcom, with Christy Romano as Ren, Nick Spano as big brother Donnie, and Donna Pescow and Tom Virtue as their folks.

The Story of Fathers & Sons

7 p.m. on ABC

More than 50 men and boys — some famous, some not — talk about life with Father, and life as one, in this special from 1999. The stories are personal, but some touch on social concerns, including teenage fatherhood, fatherless homes and the challenges of caring for aging parents.



Al Michaels
WBC LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPIONSHIP

Movie: Alice in Wonderland

7 p.m. on NBC

Brilliant casting and a faithfulness to Lewis Carroll's writing not seen in other recent adaptations make this 1999 made-for-TV "Alice" a winner. Tina Majorino stars as the girl who falls down a rabbit hole into a world of weirdness, where she meets such odd characters as the Cheshire Cat (Whoopi Goldberg), the Mad Hatter (Martin Short), the Mock Turtle (Gene Wilder) and the Red Queen (Miranda Richardson).

The 2000 ALMA Awards

8 p.m. on ABC

Actress Jennifer Lopez and singers Ricky Martin and Christina Aguilera share entertainer of the year honors at this annual salute to Latinos in film, TV and music. The two-hour telecast includes performances by Aguilera, Jon Secada and Reba McEntire, Kirk Franklin, Ozomatli, and Jose Feliciano, recipient of this year's Ricardo Montalban Lifetime Achievement Award.

Three wacky original shows kick off Comedy's new seaso

By Jacqueline Cutler

Cover story

The reruns airing are fresh enough that we remember what's coming, and except for a priceless few, many of us want to try new shows.

This week, Comedy Central launches its new season with three original shows. The funniest and most absurd is a British import, "The League of Gentlemen," premiering Monday, June 19. The sketch show is set in a fictional bucolic English town whose sign reads, "Welcome to Royston Vasey — You'll Never Leave."

On "Don't Forget Your Toothbrush," premiering Tuesday, June 20, is also from Britain, but the host is Mark Curry, who proudly hails from Oakland, Calif. Curry, remarkably quick on his feet, uses his years as a stand-up comic to his advantage.

Each of the 300 audience members comes to the studio prepared: passport, packed suitcase — hence the title — and fills out a questionnaire that asks for personal data. Curry says when he wanders into the audience, he already knows whom he's going to pick.

Its title, however, may have som competition from "Strip Mall," pr miering Sunday, June 18. This sho features Julie Brown as Tammi (pr nounced Tam-me!), a former chi star who fatally stabbed her adult c star and is now a gold-digging ba maid in a strip mall in the Valley.

Pipeline

In all the reports of the upcoming fall season, I never saw a complete list of the shows that will not be coming back. Can you provide such a list? -Mark S., Flint, Mich.

I'll try. Here's a list by network:

ABC: "Boy Meets World"; "It's Like, You Know ..."; "Odd Man Out"; "Snoops"; "Oh Grow Up"; "Sports Night"; "Talk to Me"; "Then Came You"; "Wasteland"; "Wonderland."

CBS: "Cosby," "Chicago Hope," "Falcone," "Grapevine," "Ladies Man" (which may return midseason), "Love and Money," "Martial Law," "Now and Again," "Winning Lines," "Work With Me" and the popular Kyle Chandler series "Early Edition."

Fox: "Action"; "Beverly Hills, 90210"; "Family Guy"; "Get Real"; "Greed"; "Harsh Realm"; "Party of Five"; "Time of Your Life."

NBC: "Battery Park"; "Cold Feet"; "Freaks and Geeks"; "God, the Devil and Bob"; "Jesse"; "The Others"; "The Pretender"; "Profiler"; "Stark Raving Mad"; "Suddenly Susan"; "Twenty One"; "Veronica's Closet." Theoretically, the summer sitcom "M.Y.O.B." is a candidate for a midseason slot.

UPN: "Dilbert," "Grown Ups," "Malcolm & Eddie," "Secret Agent Man," "Shasta McNasty," "The Strip."

WB: "Brutally Normal," "DC," "Mission Hill," "Movie Stars," "Safe Harbor," "Zoe."

We watch "Becker" every Monday night mainly for "Margaret." What can you tell me about her? - C. Barnett, Toledo, Ohio.

Born in tiny Lexington, Miss., Hattie Winston, 55, eventually moved to New York to begin an acting career that spans more than three decades. Her Broadway credits include "The Tap Dance Kid," "Two Gentlemen of Verona" and "The Me Nobody Knows."

On TV, she has been a regular on "Nurses," "Homefront" and "The Electric Company," and had a recurring role on "Port Charles," as well as several guest appearances.

Sunday's Best Bets

Auto Racing

12 p.m. on NASH

As the NASCAR circuit shifts from Michigan to Long Pond, Pa., for the Pocono 500, so does the mind-set of the drivers, who face a race vastly different from last week's. Whereas the 2-mile oval at Michigan Speedway offers a cleaner race, Pocono Raceway's 2.5-mile tri-oval, featuring three tight corners with different degrees of banking and three straightaways of varying lengths, usually brings out the best in Winston Cup racing.

Golf

12:30 p.m. on NBC

The network of the Olympics has been the network of golf since last Thursday, when 16 hours of U.S. Open coverage kicked off. It concludes today with the final round from Pebble Beach Golf Links in California, a magical course with the reputation for producing some of the greatest moments in golf history. At the end of the day, a new champion will be saluted, evoking memories of last year's winner, Payne Stewart, who died in an October plane crash.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Sam Phillips: The Man Who Invented Rock 'n' Roll" is a tuneful two-hour portrait of the Memphis, Tenn., record producer whose dream was to share the blues he'd grown up on with the world. It was an uphill struggle that almost cost him his sanity until he hooked up with young Elvis Presley. The swivel-hipped teen-ager was only his first big discovery; he soon added Jerry Lee Lewis, B.B. King, Johnny Cash, Carl Perkins and many others to his Sun Records label.

Dana Delany
TRUE WOMEN

Movie: Deadlocked

7 p.m. on TNT

A young man is convicted of rape and murder, and his father (Charles S. Dutton) doesn't believe for a minute that he's guilty. He resorts to drastic measures, taking the jury hostage and demanding that the prosecutor (David Caruso) dig up the truth that will set his son free. Jo D. Jonz ("First Time Felon") also stars in this gripping new thriller directed by Michael Watkins ("NYPD Blue").

Movie: True Women

8 p.m. on CBS

Dana Delany, Annabeth Gish and Angelina Jolie star as three women who helped settle the state of Texas after the fall of the Alamo. The two-part drama is adapted from the book by Janice Woods Windle, who descended from two of the main characters. Powers Boothe, Michael York, Charles Dutton, Tina Majorino and Michael Greyeyes also star. Part 2 airs Wednesday.

Homeless student is going to college

By Lorri Antosz Benson

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

As the success of ABC's game show "Who Wants to Be a Millionaire" continues to amaze industry insiders and delight viewers, people are still talking about last month's celebrity edition. Famous contestants, including Queen Latifah, sat in the hot seat to try and win $1 million for the charity of their choice.

Latifah, who walked away from the "Millionaire" set with $250,000 for her charity, the Lancelot H. Owens Scholarship Foundation, can now cite a real-life happy ending as a result of her guest appearance. When the foundation's fifth annual awards and fund-raising dinner was held, student Anna Bateman attended thinking she'd been invited as the valedictorian of her class at Technology High School in Newark, N.J.

Despite being homeless, Bateman had been accepted to the University of Delaware with a full scholarship. Unfortunately, she had no way of paying for moving expenses or such simple necessities as sheets, towels and books.

Luckily for her, Bateman's teachers were big fans of Latifah's talk show, and they approached the show and its host about helping her. At the dinner, Bateman was shocked to have Latifah present her with a check for $5,000, part of the "Millionaire" earnings!

The charity was founded in memory of Latifah's brother, an East Orange, N.J., police officer. The foundation provides deserving graduating seniors with the access and resources to attain a higher education.

This inspiring story must make Regis Philbin feel better about being shut out in the host categories at the Daytime Emmy Awards. Despite winning the best game show Emmy for "Millionaire," Philbin did not walk away with a hosting Emmy for either that show or his popular talk show, "Live! — Regis & Kathie Lee." After seven previous nominations, this was his last chance to win with co-host Kathie Lee Gifford before she leaves "Live!" this summer. The Emmy for best talk show host went to Rosie O'Donnell for the fourth time, and she picked up best show for the third time.

Fellow nominee Barbara Walters was honored with the Lifetime Achievement Award. While she was winding up a season filled with multiple hosting jobs, one of her co-hosts on "The View" was just finishing a unique gig, Joy Behar.

Monday's Best Bets

Movie: The Truth About Cats and Dogs

7 p.m. on ABC

A shy British photographer (Ben Chaplin) intrigued by the voice of a radio call-in pet show host (Janeane Garofalo) asks her out over the phone. Complications arise when the woman, an attractive brunette insecure about her looks, gets her beautiful blond friend (Uma Thurman) to impersonate her.

About Us: The Dignity of Children

7 p.m. on FAM

Ordinary children and teens talk about their hopes, fears, dreams, and — brace yourselves, Mom and Dad — feelings toward adults in this two-hour documentary hosted by Oprah Winfrey. The program, a must-see for anyone who wants to understand the young people in his life better, also includes reminiscences by adults about their own childhoods, including some poignant memories from Winfrey herself. Also sharing are writers Nicholasa Mohr, Brent Staples and Laura Cunningham.

Titus

7:30 p.m. on FOX

After a fight with Erin (Cynthia Watros), Titus (Christopher Titus) goes out for a little comfort food and gets a different kind of comfort — from the waitress. Erin finds out, and Titus ends up sticking both feet in his mouth trying to apologize. But wait! Turns out Erin had a fling last night, too. That revelation leads to more fighting, and this time it's terminal. But don't count this couple out yet; Titus has an ace up his sleeve.

Ally McBeal

8 p.m. on FOX

In "Seeing Green," Ally (Calista Flockhart) seeks out therapy for the hallucinations she's been having. Unfortunately, Dr. Clark (Tracey Ullman) is out of town, so she winds up with a very different doctor (guest star Betty White), who suggests she do some drugs — the legal kind.

City Confidential

8 p.m. on A&E

"Phoenix" is a murder mystery that remains unsolved after 20 years. Pat Redmond, a partner in a printing business in that Arizona city, was shot dead in his home in 1980 by three men who gained entry with a police badge. His wife and mother-in-law were also shot, but the wife lived and fingered the killers. Authorities strongly suspected the men were hired to do the job, but by whom? A local mob figure and the wife of Redmond's partner were put on trial repeatedly for the killings, but both escaped conviction. Today, the question remains unanswered: Was it a contract hit, and if so, who ordered it?

Tuesday's Best Bets

Sixth Annual Blockbuster Entertainment Awards

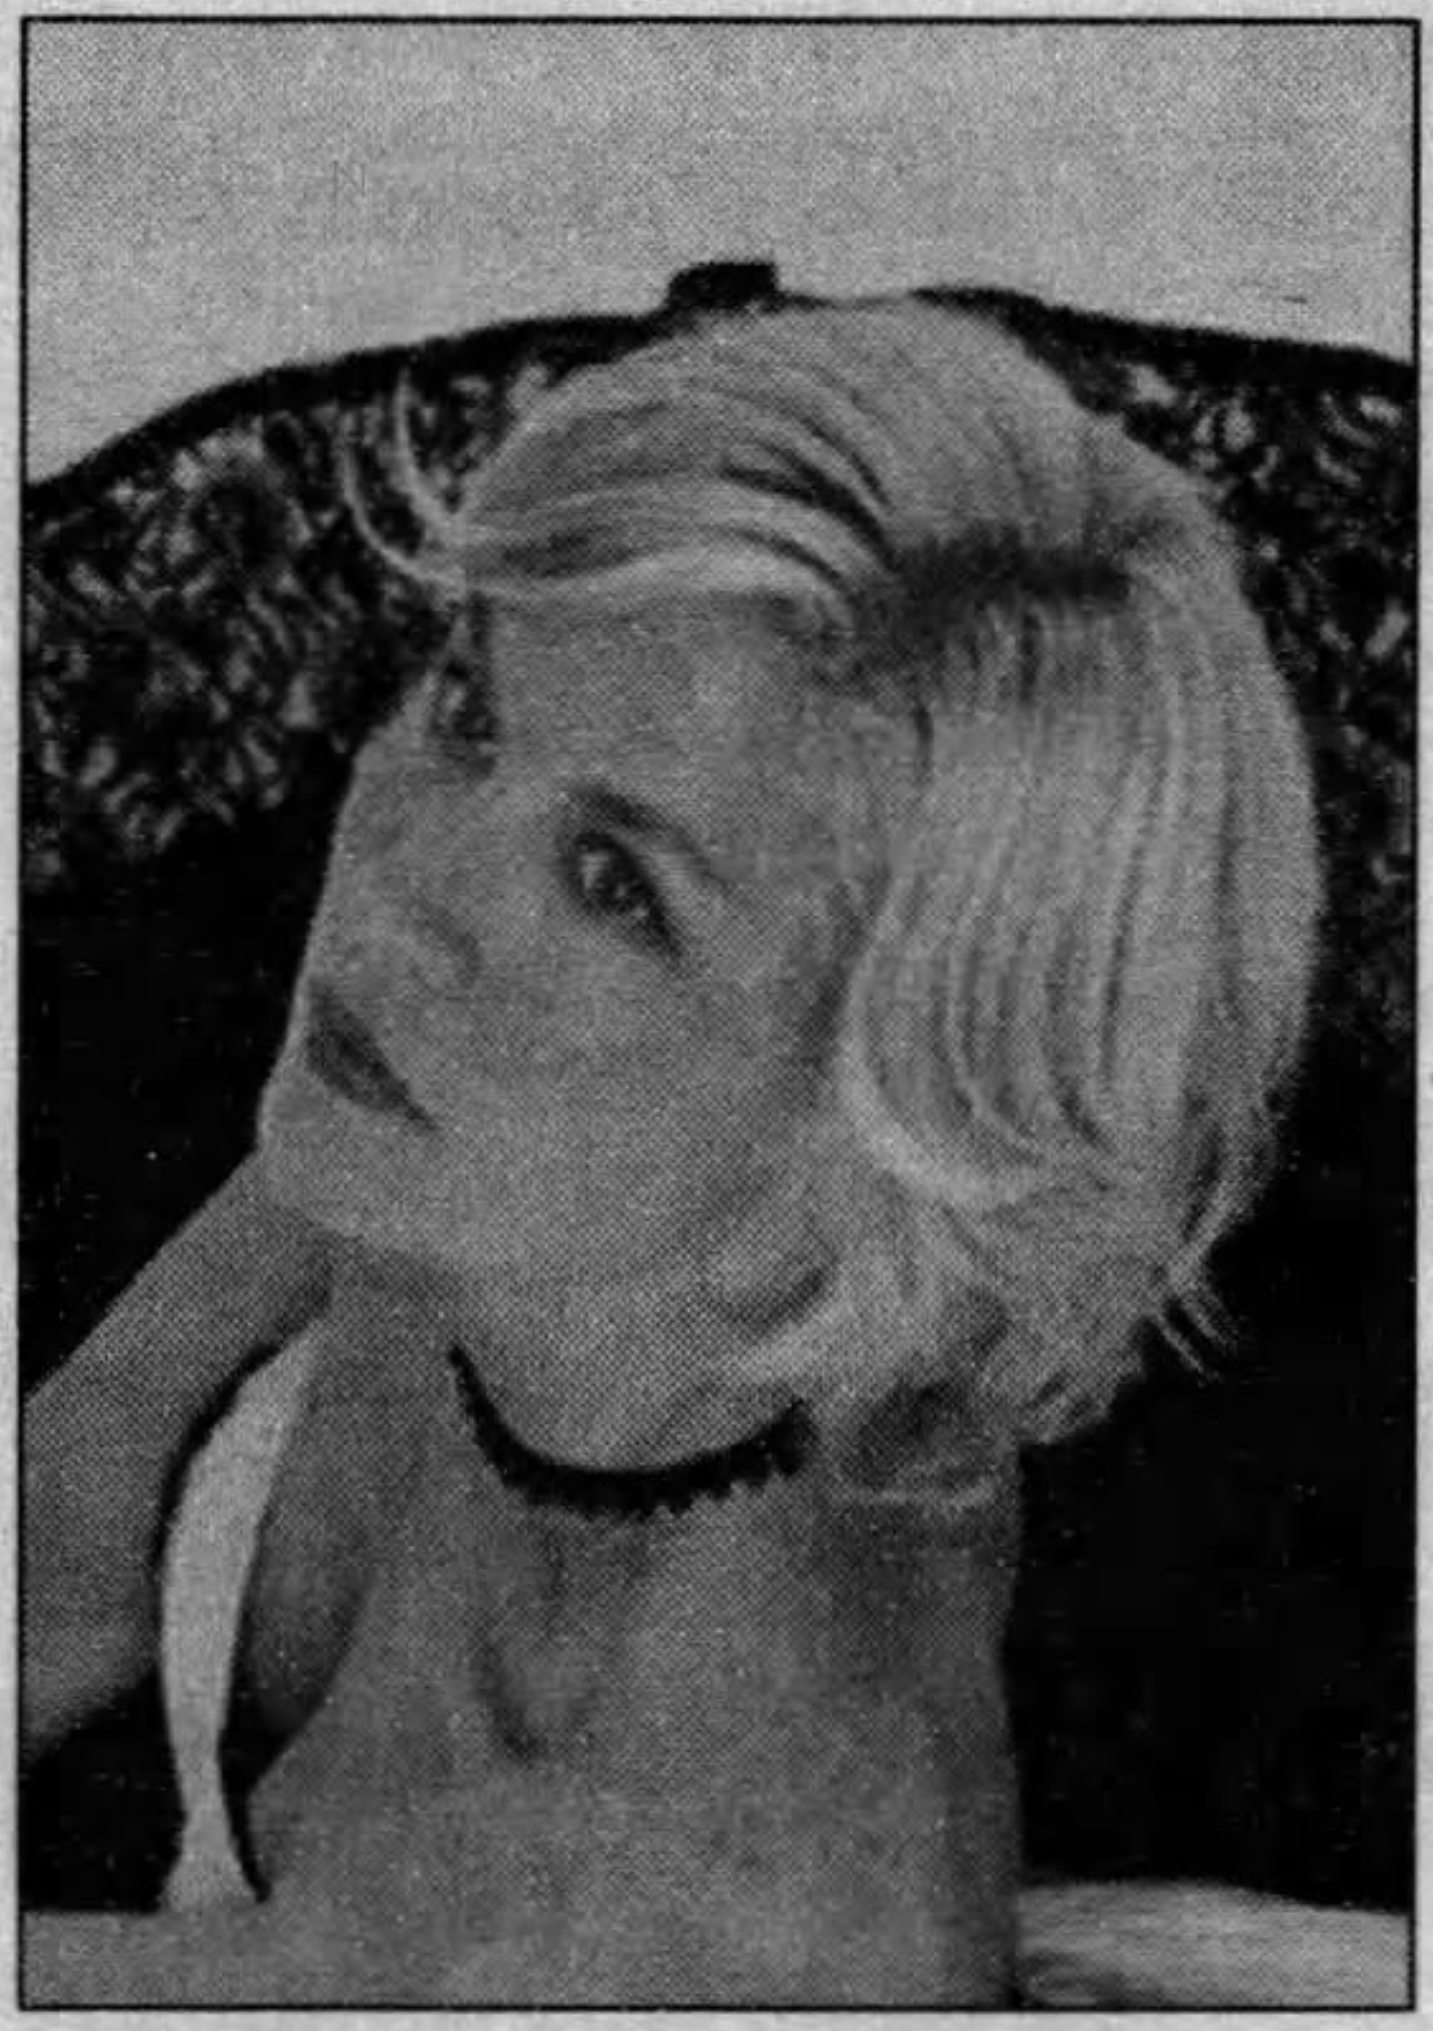
7 p.m. on FOX

Movies and music, move over. There's a new game in town. For the first time, this awards program recognizing the year's most popular film actors and recording artists adds video games to the list. There's an award for favorite game as well as prizes for the hottest games for different systems, with "Pokemon Yellow" and "Driver: You Are the Wheelman" among those up for honors. Nominees in the good old-fashioned human categories include actors Richard Gere ("Runaway Bride"), Tom Hanks ("The Green Mile") and Catherine Zeta-Jones ("The Haunting") and music makers Enrique Iglesias, Christina Aguilera and Whitney Houston.

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Mary Magdalene: The Hidden Apostle" is filled with fascinating insights about one of Jesus' most misunderstood followers. Contrary to the picture many of us have of her from Sunday school, many scholars now believe she was never a prostitute, but a woman born into wealth. There's also a good chance she was at the Last Supper and with Jesus afterward in the garden of Gethsemane. She may even have gone to France to spread the gospel after Jesus' death. Professors from Harvard, Catholic University and elsewhere offer their thoughts on the woman who may have been Jesus' closest friend.



Jenna Elfman
DHARMA & GREG

Dharma & Greg

8 p.m. on ABC

A while back, Dharma (Jenna Elfman) met Bob Dylan, and he told his friends. Now two of them — singers Lyle Lovett and k.d. lang — are seeking her out for guidance with some personal crises. Speaking of crises, Greg (Thomas Gibson) is having a small one of the romantic kind — namely, trouble finding a romantic place for him and Dharma to spend Valentine's Day. Susan Sullivan also stars in "The Trouble With Troubadour."

M.Y.O.B.

8:30 p.m. on NBC

Riley (Katharine Towne) comes closer to the truth about her past when she finds a diary that belonged to her purported birth mother, Pearl. Opal (Lauren Graham) is uncomfortable with dredging up Pearl's past, but that's not the only thing making her uneasy. Just wait until she sees Lisa and Mitch's (Amanda Detmer, Paul Fitzgerald) moves on the dance floor. Colin Mortensen also stars in "French Connection."

Wednesday's Best Bets

Two Guys and a Girl

7 p.m. on ABC

Berg (Ryan Reynolds) realizes that the romantic sparks with Ashley (Suzanne Cryer) are at their hottest when the angry sparks are flying. So he introduces a secret weapon to keep things fired up: his mom. Sharon and Johnny (Traylor Howard, Nathan Fillion) get some help with their love life from an unexpected source: Pete (Richard Ruccolo). Cheryl Ladd guest stars in "Foul Play."

Dawson's Creek

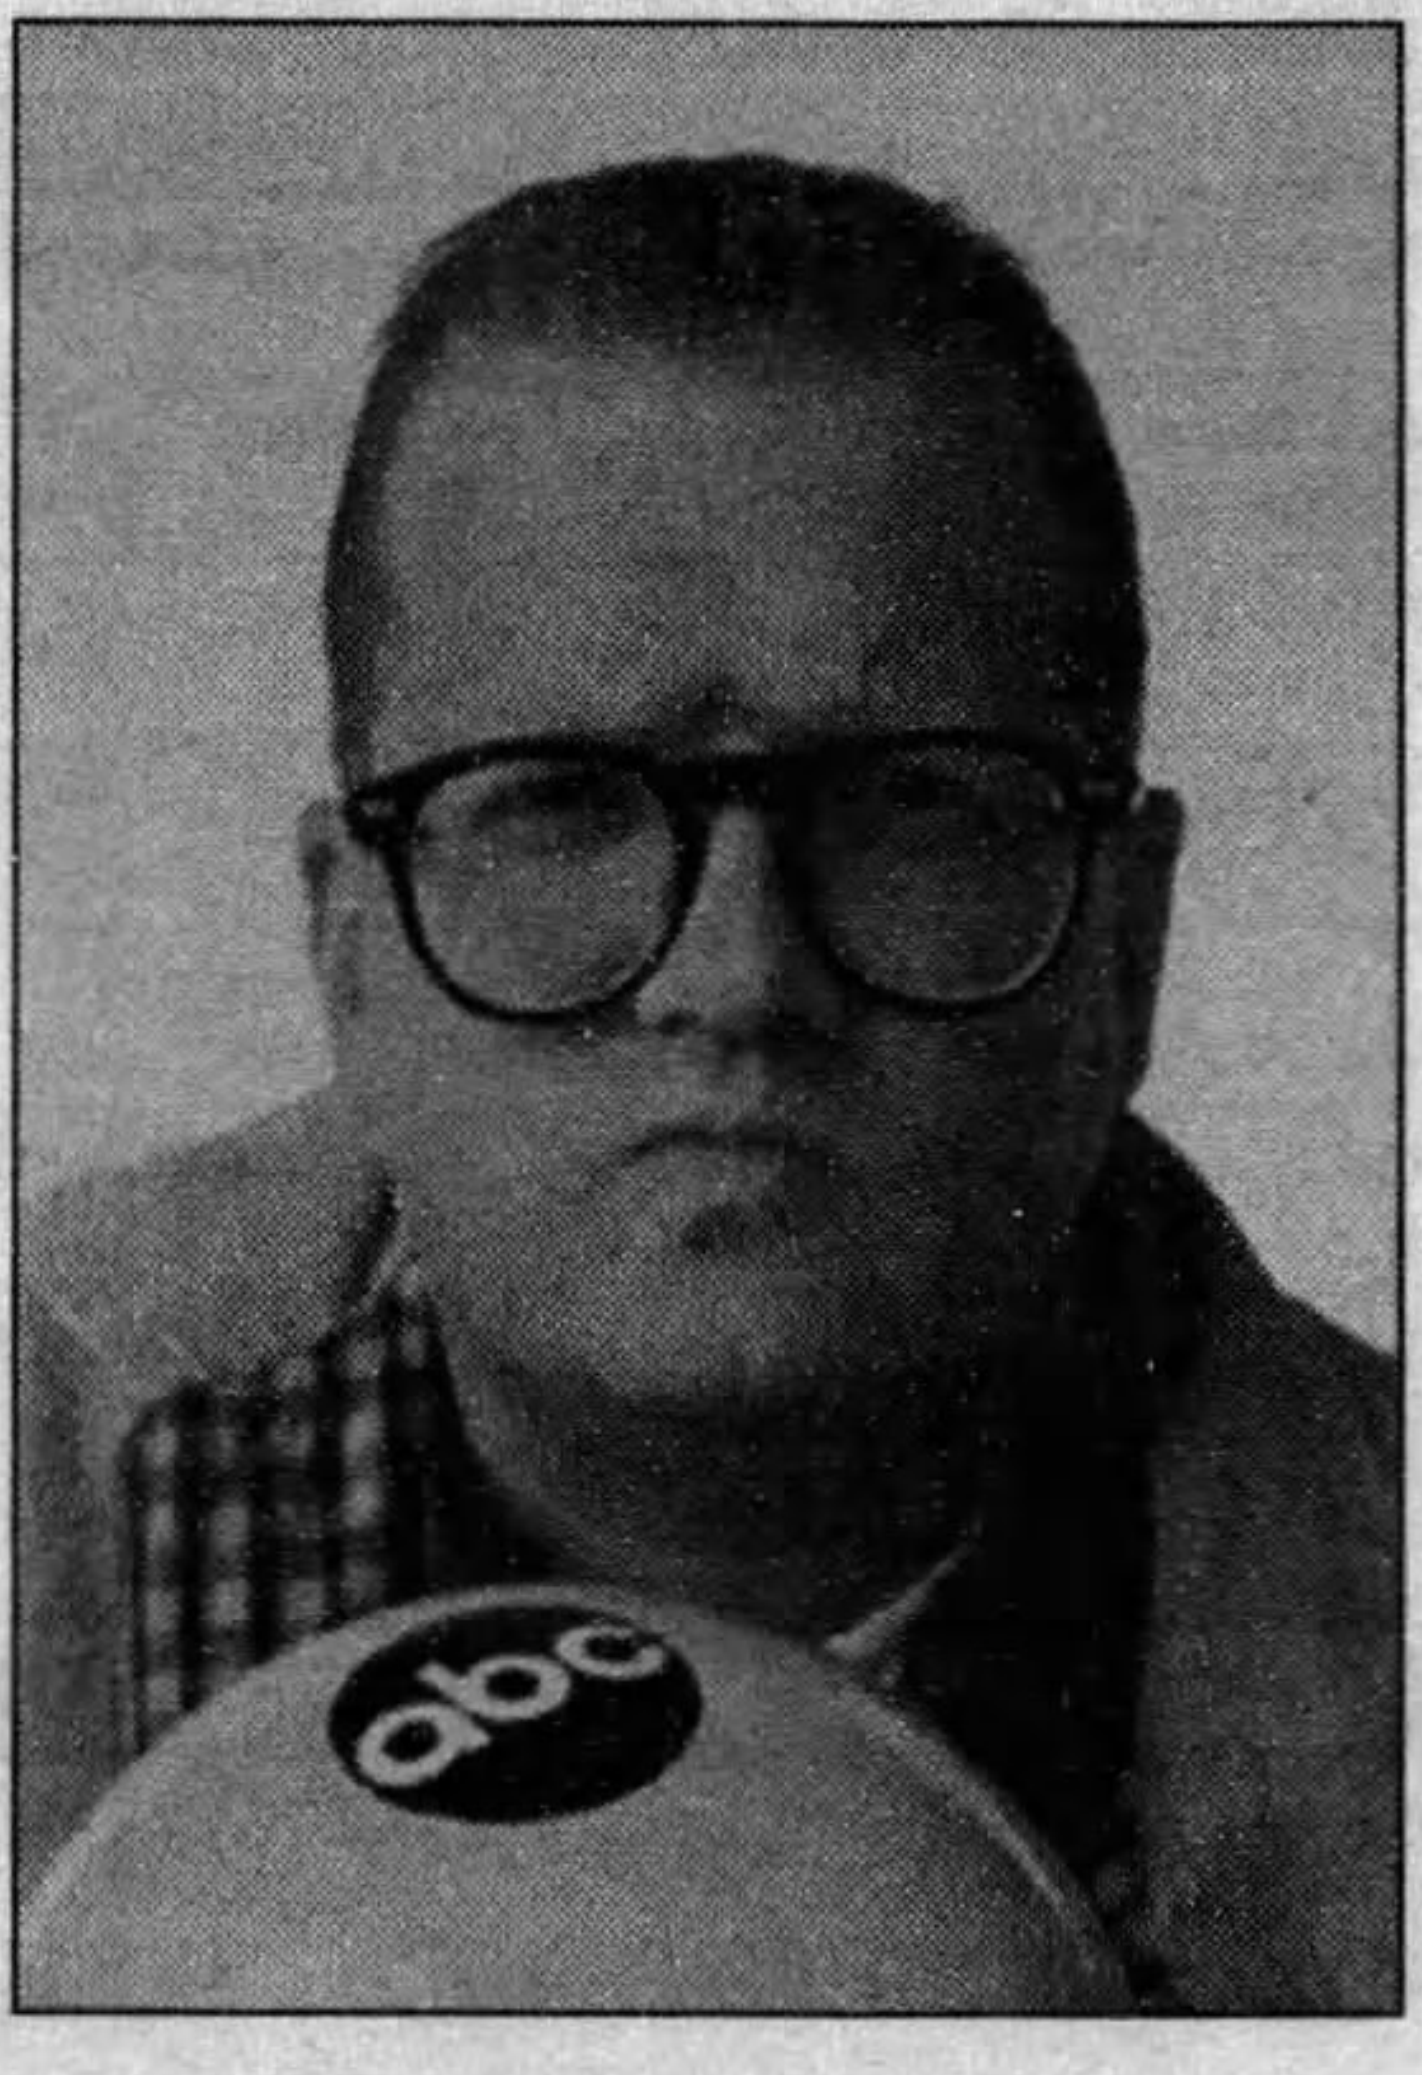
7 p.m. on WB

Principal Green (Obba Babatunde) is forced to step down after expelling the student who wrecked Joey's (Katie Holmes) mural. The kids are outraged — a sentiment that spreads to the school board when Pacey and A.J. (Joshua Jackson, Robin Dunne) organize a protest, and Dawson and Gale (James Van Der Beek, Mary-Margaret Humes) get it all on film. Michelle Williams also stars in "To Green, With Love."

Movie: I Love Trouble

7 p.m. on SHOW

This 1994 thriller has plenty of action, but at heart it's a romantic comedy in the tradition of "His Girl Friday." Julia Roberts and Nick Nolte star as rival Chicago reporters forced to cooperate when their competing investigations of a train wreck uncover a deadly conspiracy. Further complicating the situation is their growing attraction to each other. Saul Rubinek also stars.



Drew Carey
THE DREW CAREY SHOW

Norm

7:30 p.m. on ABC

Laurie (Laurie Metcalf) puts her money where her mouth is and her hat in the ring. Instead of merely complaining about Councilman Krantz (Michael Gross), she decides to run against him. Norm (Norm Macdonald) does what he can to help when he's not distracted by his relationship with Shelly (Faith Ford), which is moving to the next level. Ian Gomez also stars in "Laurie Runs for Office."

The Drew Carey Show

8 p.m. on ABC

"Drew Live" is a gimmick-packed ratings grabber from November sweeps that was performed three times so that all time zones could experience it live. The plot centers around Mimi's bridal shower and Steve's (John Carroll Lynch) bachelor party, which are both taking place in Drew's (Drew Carey) house. Amid all the craziness, Drew learns that someone is going to be getting an "I love you" from Kate (Christa Miller). Things get even crazier as Carey's pals from the improvisational comedy show "Whose Line Is It Anyway?" stop the action to do their unscripted thing.

Thursday's Best Bets

Big League Challenge

6 p.m. on ESPN

Taking a page from the popular Home Run Derby shows of the 1950s, ESPN has created the Big League Challenge, pitting 12 of the majors' top sluggers in a swing-for-the-fence contest. All-Stars such as Mike Piazza, Manny Ramirez, Shawn Green, Chipper Jones and Mark McGwire took part, leading to this final showdown between Jose Canseco and Rafael Palmeiro.

Diagnosis Murder

7 p.m. on CBS

Mark's (Dick Van Dyke) visiting brother (guest star Jerry Van Dyke) becomes a suspect in several patients' deaths when he's seen getting hostile with several people in the hospital — all while sleepwalking. "Sleeping Murder" marks the first time the Van Dyke brothers have worked together in 25 years. Joanna Cassidy ("Buffalo Bill") also stars.

Friends

7 p.m. on NBC

Thanksgiving threatens to become a real turkey for Monica and Chandler (Courteney Cox Arquette, Matthew Perry) when their friends and her parents (Elliott Gould, Christina Pickles) come for dinner. First, there's the fact that Mom and Dad don't realize Chandler — whom they dislike, thanks to a lie of Ross' (David Schwimmer) — is living with their daughter. Then there's Ross and Joey's (Matt LeBlanc) plan to bail out early and get together with Janine (Elle Macpherson) and her buddies.

DIAGNOSIS MURDER

Movie: Most Wanted

7 p.m. on FOX

Sgt. James Dunn (Keenen Ivory Wayans), a one-time war hero in jail for a crime he didn't commit, is offered his freedom in exchange for his service on a top-secret assassination squad. Its target is a black marketeer peddling biotechnology (Robert Culp), but the first lady is killed instead, and Dunn is framed once again. He hits the road with the one person who can clear him — a doctor (Jillian Hennessy) who caught the whole thing on tape — in tow, and the feds in hot pursuit. Jon Voight gives an over-the-top performance as the general who's set Dunn up. Paul Sorvino also stars in this 1997 thriller.

Movie: Oklahoma!

7 p.m. on AMC

A cowboy and a farm girl (Gordon MacRae, Shirley Jones) in turn-of-the-20th-century Oklahoma are the star-crossed lovers in the 1955 film adaptation of Rodgers & Hammerstein's beloved musical. Songs most of us know by heart, energetic dance numbers and a colorful assortment of supporting characters help the story along. Eddie Albert, Rod Steiger and Gloria Grahame also star.

Friday's Best Bets

Senior PGA Golf

3 p.m. on ESPN

If form holds, Allen Doyle won't successfully defend his title at the Cadillac NFL Classic in Clifton, N.J. Doyle tees off today in the first round as the man to beat, thanks to his victory last year over Joe Inman on the fourth playoff hole. But Doyle may not be the man to beat after all; since the NFL Classic began in 1993, no defending champion has ever repeated.

Walt Disney World's Summer Jam Concert

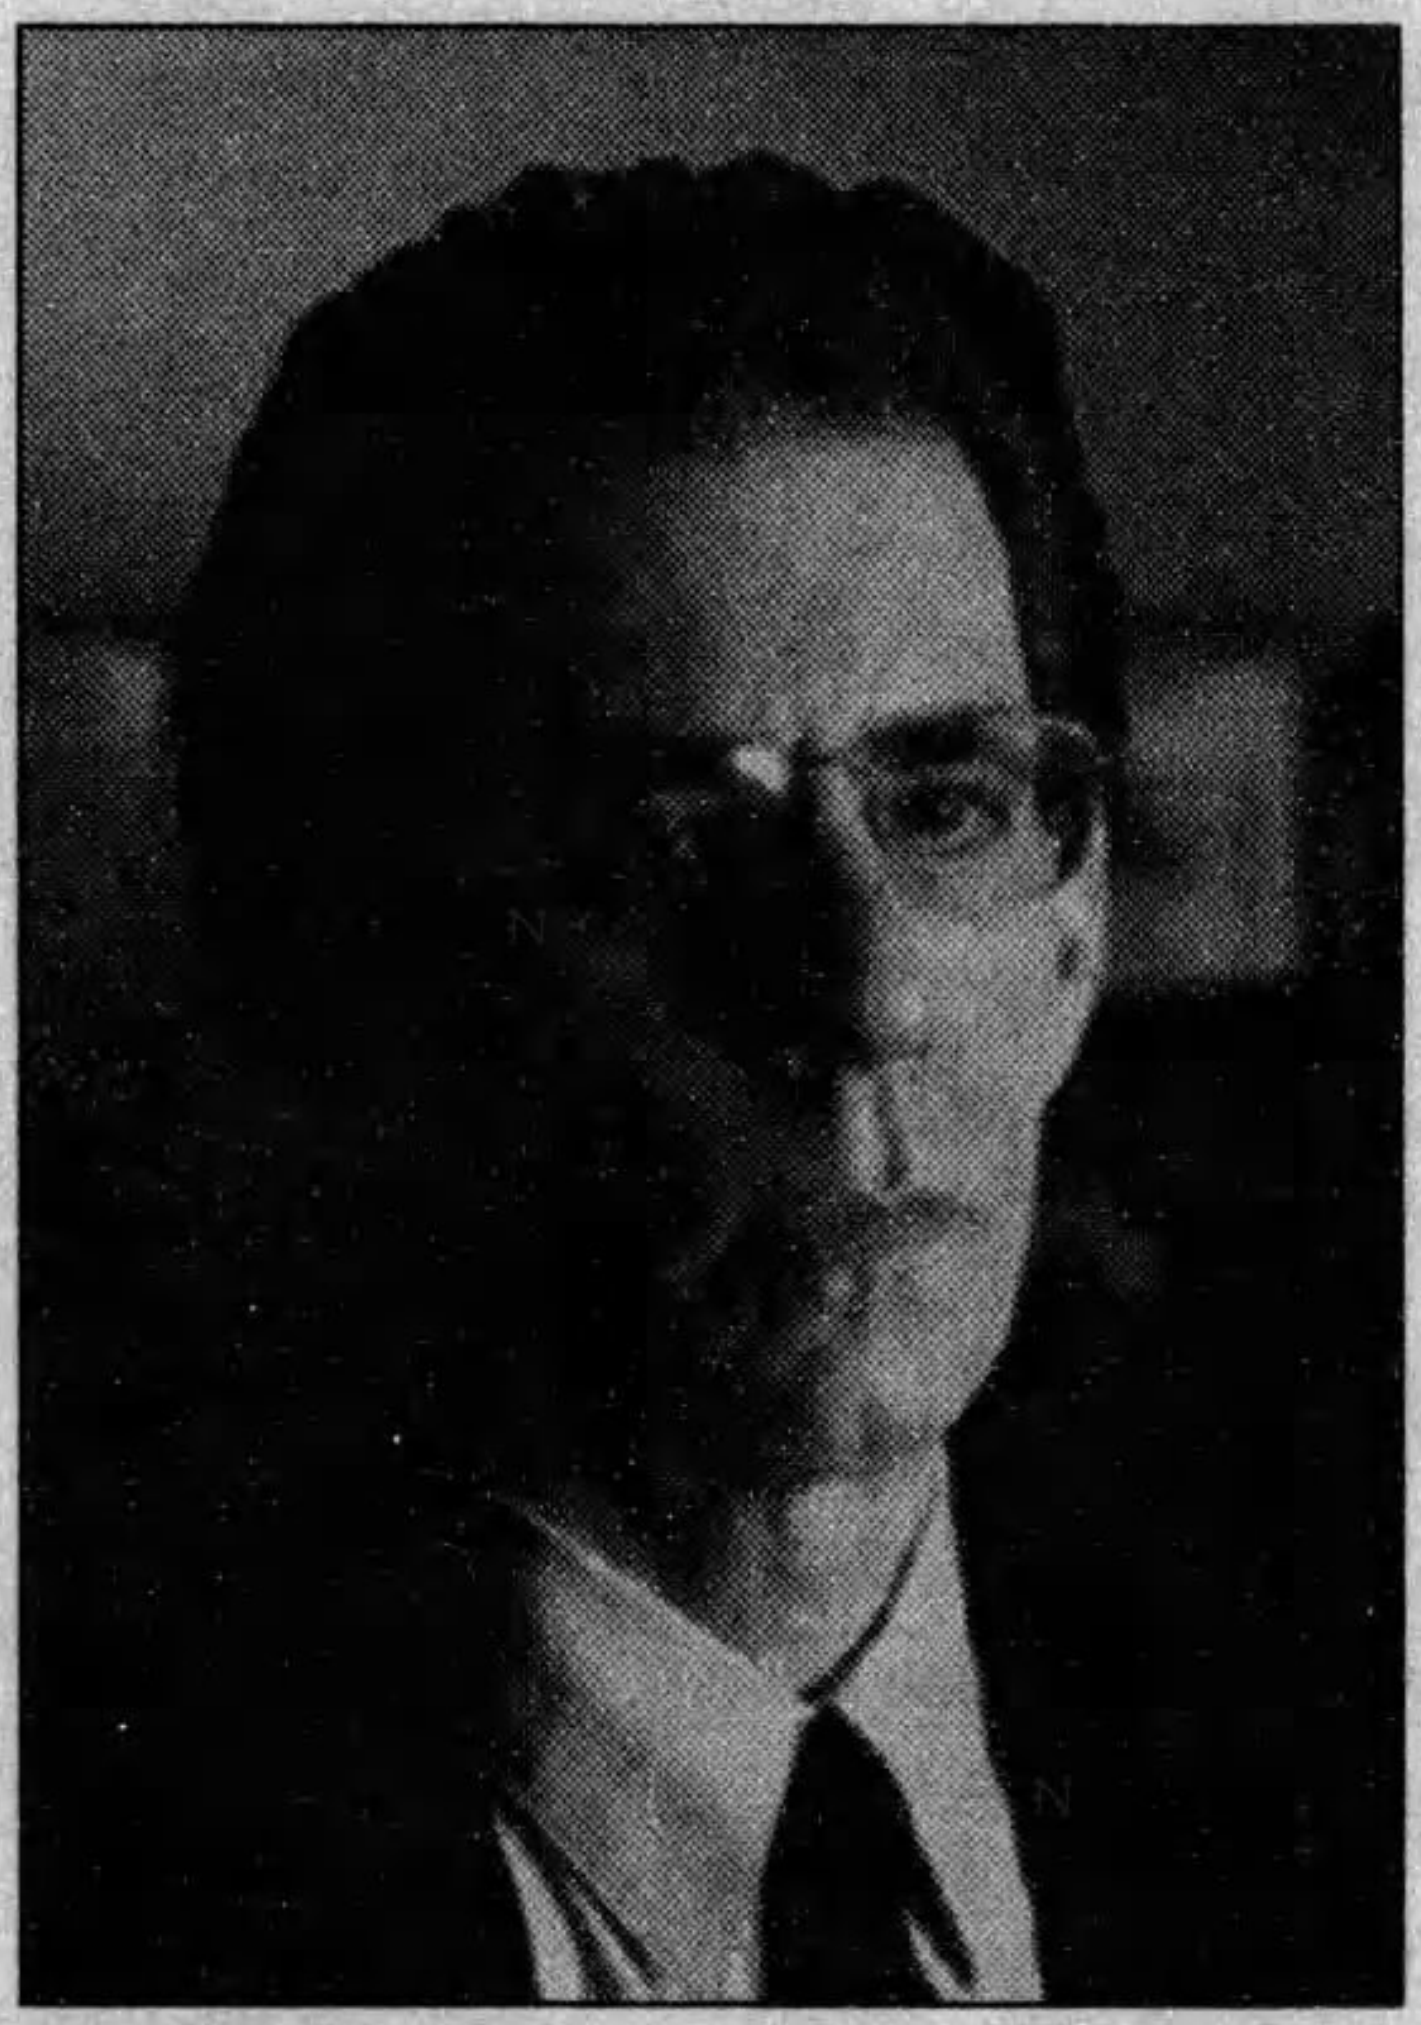
7 p.m. on ABC

As if Florida weren't hot enough in the summer! The Magic Kingdom, EPCOT Center and Disney-MGM Studios provide the backdrops for an energetic hour of tunes from Christina Aguilera, Smash Mouth, Enrique Iglesias, Destiny's Child and BBMak. Songs include Aguilera's "Genie in a Bottle" and "What a Girl Wants," Smash Mouth's "Then the Morning Comes," and BBMak's "Back Here." Interspersed among the music is footage of the stars checking out a few summer activities.

Celine Dion: All the Way

8 p.m. on CBS

The Canadian-born singer is at her titanic best in an hourlong concert special celebrating the restoration of New York's Radio City Music Hall, singing such hits as "Love Can Move Mountains" and "To Love You More." Fellow diva Gloria Estefan joins Dion for a special medley and the pop group 'N Sync for a performance of "Music of My Heart" from the movie of almost the same name.



Richard Belzer
LAW & ORDER: SPECIAL VICTIMS UNIT

Law & Order: Special Victims Unit

9 p.m. on NBC

In "Bad Blood," Benson and Stabler (Mariska Hargitay, Christopher Meloni) investigate the murder of a young gay man whose father happens to be a prominent conservative. Speaking of fathers, Munch (Richard Belzer) incurs the wrath of Benson when he makes it his mission to find her biological father — who sired her by rape.

Movie: The Witches of Eastwick

9:35 p.m. on TBS

It's named after their characters, but this dark 1987 comedy doesn't belong to its three leading ladies. It's Jack Nicholson's movie all the way. He plays the devil in disguise, conjured up by the innocent wishing of three bored, single women (Cher, Susan Sarandon, Michelle Pfeiffer). He's rich, he's handsome in his quirky way, and he knows just what to say to get each of them to make her own deal with the devil. Veronica Cartwright also stars.

Wimbledon Preview

12:30 p.m. on TNT

You no longer need pay cable to view the world's toniest tennis tourney; TNT has 61 hours of coverage from this year's event, and it's assembled quite a courtside team. Sharing analysis duties are Jim Courier, two-time winner of the Australian and French Opens, and Martina Navratilova, a nine-time singles winner at Wimbledon.

Movie: Notting Hill

6 p.m. on SHOW

Glamorous movie star Anna Scott (Julia Roberts) savors the opportunity to live the life of an ordinary person when she hooks up with William, a mild-mannered London bookseller (Hugh Grant). Their different backgrounds make the road to romance rocky at first — especially when her Hollywood boyfriend (Alec Baldwin) shows up — but don't rule out the possibility of love conquering all. Welsh actor Rhys Ifans nearly steals the show as William's slovenly roommate. Hugh Bonneville ("Mansfield Park") also stars in this bittersweet 1999 romance.

Movie: Volcano: Fire on the Mountain

7 p.m. on ABC

Terror grips a group of holiday skiers when a mountain resort explodes during a powerful volcanic eruption. Dan Cortese plays a geologist who predicts the eruption. Cynthia Gibb plays a skeptical park ranger. Brian Kerwin, Don Davis and Colina Cunningham also star.

Judson Mills
WALKER, TEXAS RANGER

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

Tobacco advertising has been banned from TV since the early 1970s, but if it weren't for cigars, television would be quite different, as you'll see in "William S. Paley: The Eye of CBS." Paley was running his family's cigar business and stumbled upon radio as a way to sell his product. Within a few years, he bought his own network, the Columbia Broadcasting System, and spent the next five decades building it into a broadcast powerhouse, thanks to his eye for news and entertainment talent and his instincts about what the people want. The profile includes interviews with Walter Cronkite, Carol Burnett and Paley's children.

Walker, Texas Ranger

8 p.m. on CBS

When Gage (Judson Mills) tries to break up a fight involving a Chinese diplomat's son, the young man attacks him ... and, thanks to diplomatic immunity, gets away with it. Walker (Chuck Norris) and company check him out and discover something more sinister than youthful arrogance: a drug ring whose heroin has already caused several deaths. Clarence Gilyard also stars in "Black Dragons."

'Resurrection Blvd.' takes TV down new road

By Jacqueline Cutler
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

When "The Sopranos" debuted, critics fell all over themselves searching for superlatives. The accolades reached such a fevered pitch that "Saturday Night Live" ridiculed the critics in a hilarious skit.

Not to detract from HBO's excellent series, and at the risk of winding up with broken kneecaps, "Resurrection Blvd.," premiering Monday, June 26, on Showtime, is even better. Granted, that's a huge statement, but this is the most captivating show to come along in years.

And, it breaks new ground. It's the first show to feature an all-Latino cast and crew, and it's the first show in which boxing figures prominently in the story line. "Resurrection Blvd." is about a Latino family, but cast members are quick to note that, ultimately, this could be any family.

The dynamics translate to every ethnic group. Does anyone come from a family where there isn't a pushy woman who really does know what's best for everyone? Still, snippets of Spanish language, food and music beautifully woven into the show leave no doubt this family from East L.A. has a Mexican heritage.

Creator, executive producer and writer Dennis E. Leoni introduces the Santiagos in an engaging two-hour pilot that leaves you caring about them as individual characters.

"The old adage is 'Write about what you know,' " Leoni says. "Obviously, I knew, but I didn't think I had a chance in hell of selling it."

"The Puerto Rican, Colombian, Cubano experience is not the same as the Mexican-American experience," he adds. "I hope they will see universal themes here. I hope they will see we are not divided, just people. ... While I enjoy all the attention because we are a Latino show, I hope at some point we are just focusing on the show."

And at the heart of it is a family of fully drawn characters. Roberto (Tony Plana, "JFK"), a widower with five children all living at home, is an ex-boxer who works as an auto mechanic in a garage owned by Hector (Cheech Marin, "Nash Bridges"). He's training his middle son, Carlos (Michael DeLorenzo, "New York Undercover"), who has what it take to be a contender.

Eldest daughter Yolanda (Rut Livier, "The Last Flight") works a a Beverly Hills law firm, and oldes son Miguel (Mauricio Mendoza "Babylon 5"), an ex-boxer, work with his dad at the garage Youngest son Alex (Nicholas Gonzalez, "My Little Assassin") is premed student. And the baby o the family, Victoria (Mariso Nichols, "Scream 2"), is a high school temptress who hangs ou with the wrong crowd.

Two other relatives round out th family. Bibi (Elizabeth Pena, "Lon Star") is Roberto's outspoken siste in-law, who comes over to cook an help keep house for the Santiagos and Ruben (Daniel Zacapa, "Seven") is Roberto's brother, who is s addlebrained from boxing he ca no longer speak.

Parker starred in first 'JAG' episode

Pipeline

By Taylor Michaels
TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

Wasn't Andrea Parker of "The Pretender" the original female lead when "JAG" first aired? -Carol Glover, Covington, Va.

You have a good memory, Carol. Parker played Lt. Caitlin "Kate" Pike in the 1995 pilot episode of "JAG" and reprised the role in two subsequent episodes. Parker tells me the character never was intended to be a regular on the series.

Was the actor who played Uncle Fester in the original "Addams Family" TV series former child star Jackie Coogan? Also, which of Food Network's "Two Fat Ladies" recently passed away, and how did she die? -Peggy Brische, Columbus, Ohio.

Coogan, who died of heart problems in 1984, got his start in silent movies several decades before joining Carolyn Jones and John Astin in that ABC sitcom. Among many other roles, Coogan was the first Oliver Twist in a 1922 version of the Charles Dickens classic.

Brunette, bespectacled Jennifer Paterson died of lung cancer at 71 on Aug. 10, 1999. Food Network aired an hourlong tribute called "One Fat Lady, One Large Life" several weeks ago.

Who hosted the game show "The Joker's Wild"? -Scott Cooper, Krakow, Wis.

Former "Twenty-One" host Jack Barry was the original host of the long-running game show starting in 1972. Bill Cullen took over after Barry's death in 1984.

I loved Dougray Scott in ABC's "Arabian Nights," but I know almost nothing about him. Can you enlighten me? -Sharon Williams, Maroa, Ill.

Dougray (pronounced "doog-ray") Scott, 34, was born in Fife, Scotland, and trained at the Welsh College of Music and Drama. He began his career in regional theaters and with TV guest appearances, getting his break in the popular British series "Soldier, Soldier." His performance as a corrupt policeman in the film "Twin Town" led to his casting opposite Drew Barrymore in the Cinderella movie "Ever After."

Sunday's Best Bets

Diving

1 p.m. on NBC

For the top divers in the United States, four years of preparation culminate in the final day of the U.S. Olympic Team Trials in Federal Way, Wash. The competition began with 25 men and 25 women aiming for two spots in each of the individual Olympic diving events: men's and women's 3-meter springboard and men's and women's 10-meter platform. At the recent U.S. National Indoor Championships, Mark Ruiz won the springboard and platform events. For the women, Sara Reiling finished first in springboard, and Kathy Pesek was the platform champion.

Movie: Model Behavior

6 p.m. on ABC

Shy, geeky Alex yearns for a glamorous life. Teen model Janine wishes she had more freedom. When Alex helps her father cater a personal appearance by Janine, the two girls discover they share a remarkable resemblance and try switching roles for a while. Things get pretty confusing, especially where a hot male model (music group 'N Sync's Justin Timberlake) is concerned, and both girls learn a good lesson about how the grass isn't necessarily greener across the fence. Maggie Lawson plays Alex and Janine, with Kathie Lee Gifford as Janine's controlling mom and Gifford's real-life son, Cody, as her kid brother.

Louis Gossett Jr.
TO DANCE WITH OLIVIA

The Wild Ride of Outlaw Bikers

7 p.m. on A&E

You know about the Hell's Angels, but have you heard of the Boozefighters or the Galloping Gooses? They were among the first biker clubs formed by veterans after World War II. It was a noisy 1947 Boozefighters rally in California that made the "outlaw" biker an icon and inspired the 1954 movie "The Wild One." This two-hour special from 1999 traces the history of biker gangs from those early groups through the Hell's Angels' heyday, the motorcycle-movie craze of the '60s and the bike's rebirth as a yuppie machine in the '80s. A screening of "The Wild One" with Marlon Brando follows.

Movie: To Dance With Olivia

8 p.m. on CBS

Louis Gossett Jr. stars as a lawyer whose marriage is shattered by the death of a son. When his chronically depressed wife, Olivia (Lonette McKee), stops responding to their remaining child, a friend urges the attorney to defend a local farmer in a case that might help him rebuild his marriage. Joe Don Baker also stars in the touching 1997 drama.

Weller is behind favorite shows

By Lorri Antosz Benson

TVDATA FEATURES WRITER

If you're ready for a change from chair-throwing, finger-pointing talk shows to "feel good, learn something" television, you're ready for a show produced by Robb Weller.

Some of you may remember Weller from his early talk show days on "A.M. Chicago" and "The Home Show“,“” or from his current hosting job on the series "A&E Top 10."

But lately, Weller has become known as the man "who produces those great TV shows," as he was recently told by a fan. "It was great," he says. "She came up and said, 'I love your shows; I watch them all the time.' It was strange to be recognized as a producer for a change!"

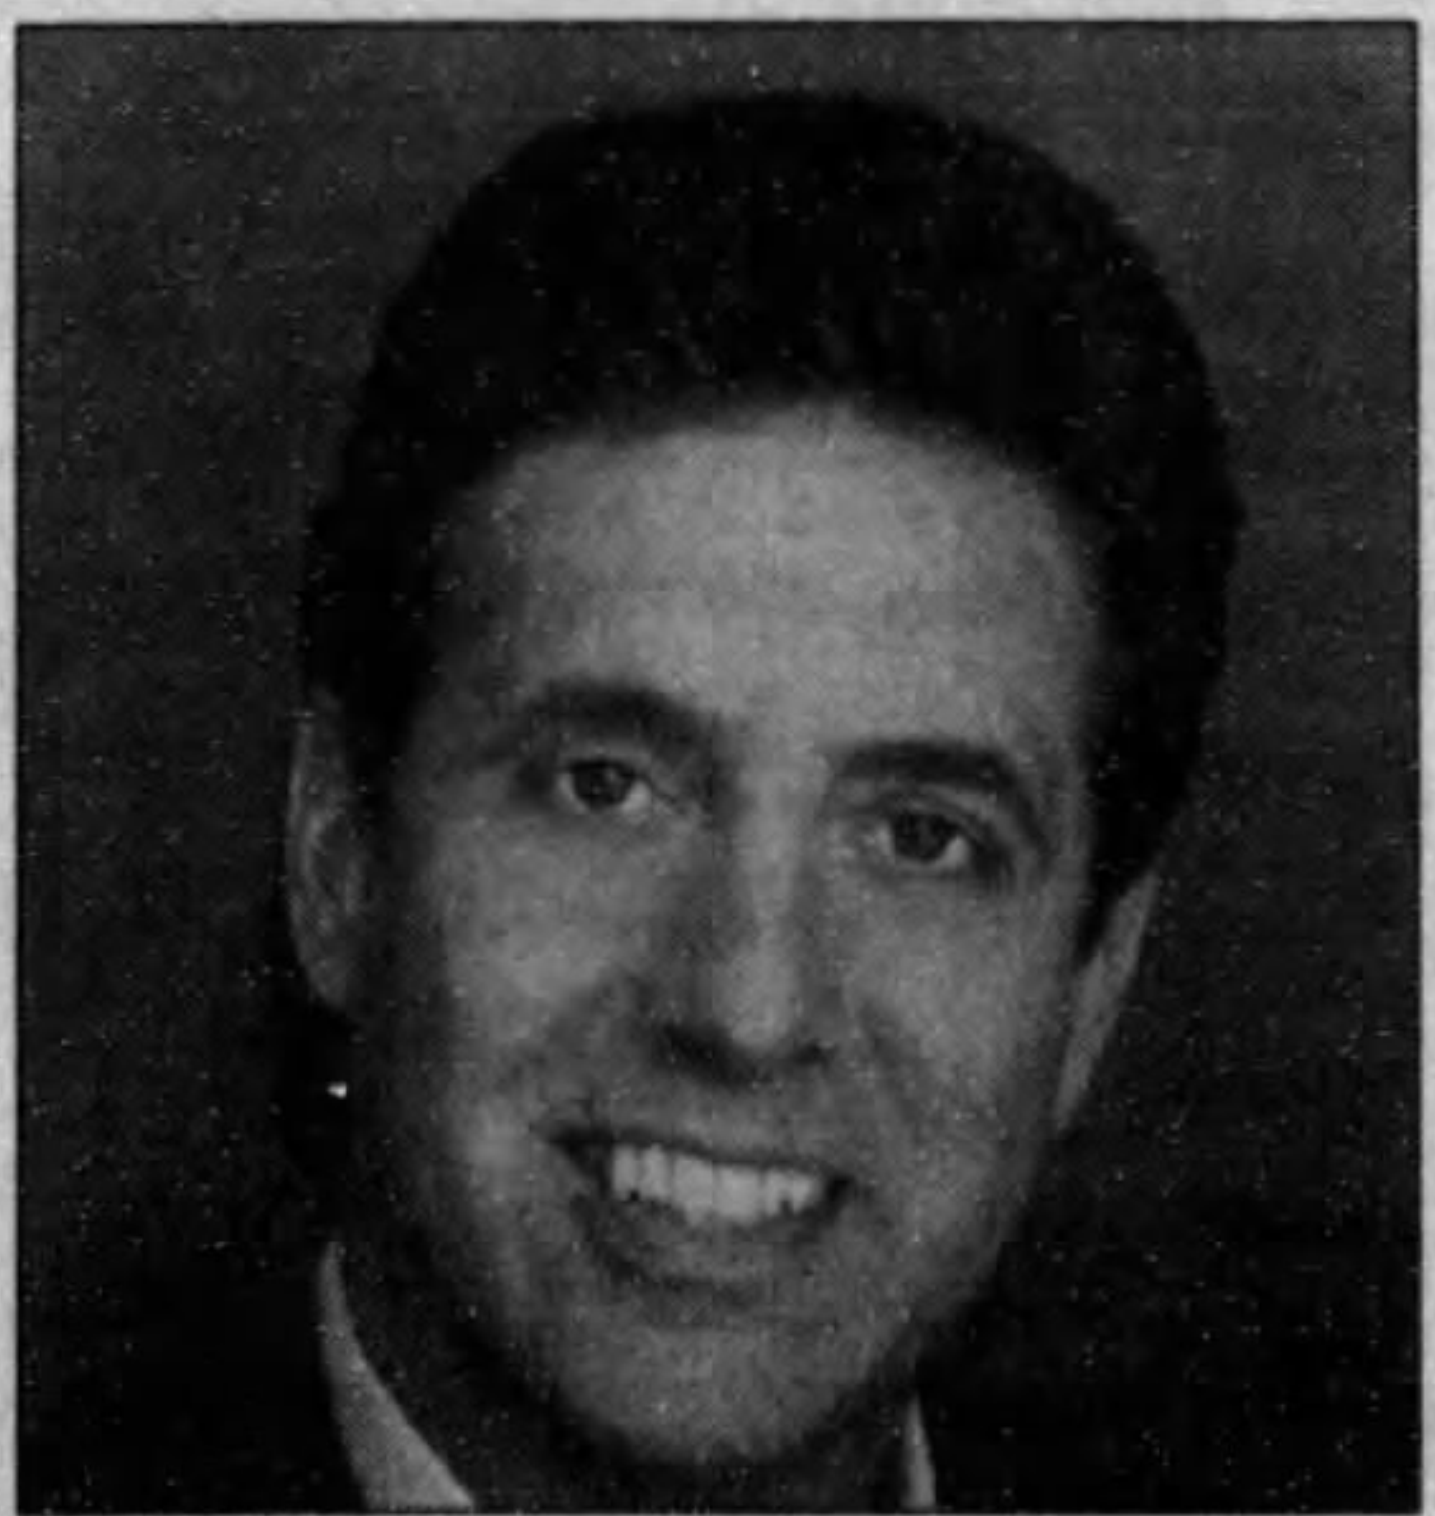
Weller left his first hosting job at "A.M. Chicago" just months before a certain fledgling host named Oprah Winfrey took over. "In a way, I'm a conduit to the most successful talk host in history," he jokes. "I was the sonic wave ahead of her."

Talk the Talk

He went on to other hosting jobs, even becoming an early predecessor to the combination of talk and game show host that Regis Philbin is today when he emceed the game show "Win, Lose or Draw."

Weller thinks he left the talk hosting business at just the right time. "I got out when it started taking a dive," he explains. "I grew up cutting my teeth on informational talk shows. I was competing against 'Donahue,' and you needed to be smart. Viewers extracted information that was pertinent to their lives. Talk has gone the other way, outrageous. ... I'm not interested in pimps who want their girlfriends back."

Enter the cable explosion. "We were in the right place at the right time," Weller says. The "we" is he and his partner, Gary Grossman, who started their producing collaboration Weller/Grossman Productions in a spare room in Weller's L.A. home. Their company is now arguably the country's leading independent producer in terms of production volume. They produce more than 500 shows a year, with 40 percent being talk and information shows.



Robb Weller

"Broadcast TV has to go for a broad audience," he says. "The cable guys went after a niche ... category TV. They have the option of broadening or narrowing the niche. They can do a show on just lawns rather than a landscape show."

Monday's Best Bets

Tennis

11 a.m. on TNT

A record 124 1/2 hours of cable and network coverage of the Wimbledon tournament begin with first-round action from the All-England Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club. Between cable partners TNT and CNN/Sports Illustrated and NBC's 32nd consecutive year televising the prestigious event, viewers get a front-row seat at most matches, leading up to the men's final July 9 on NBC.

That '70s Show

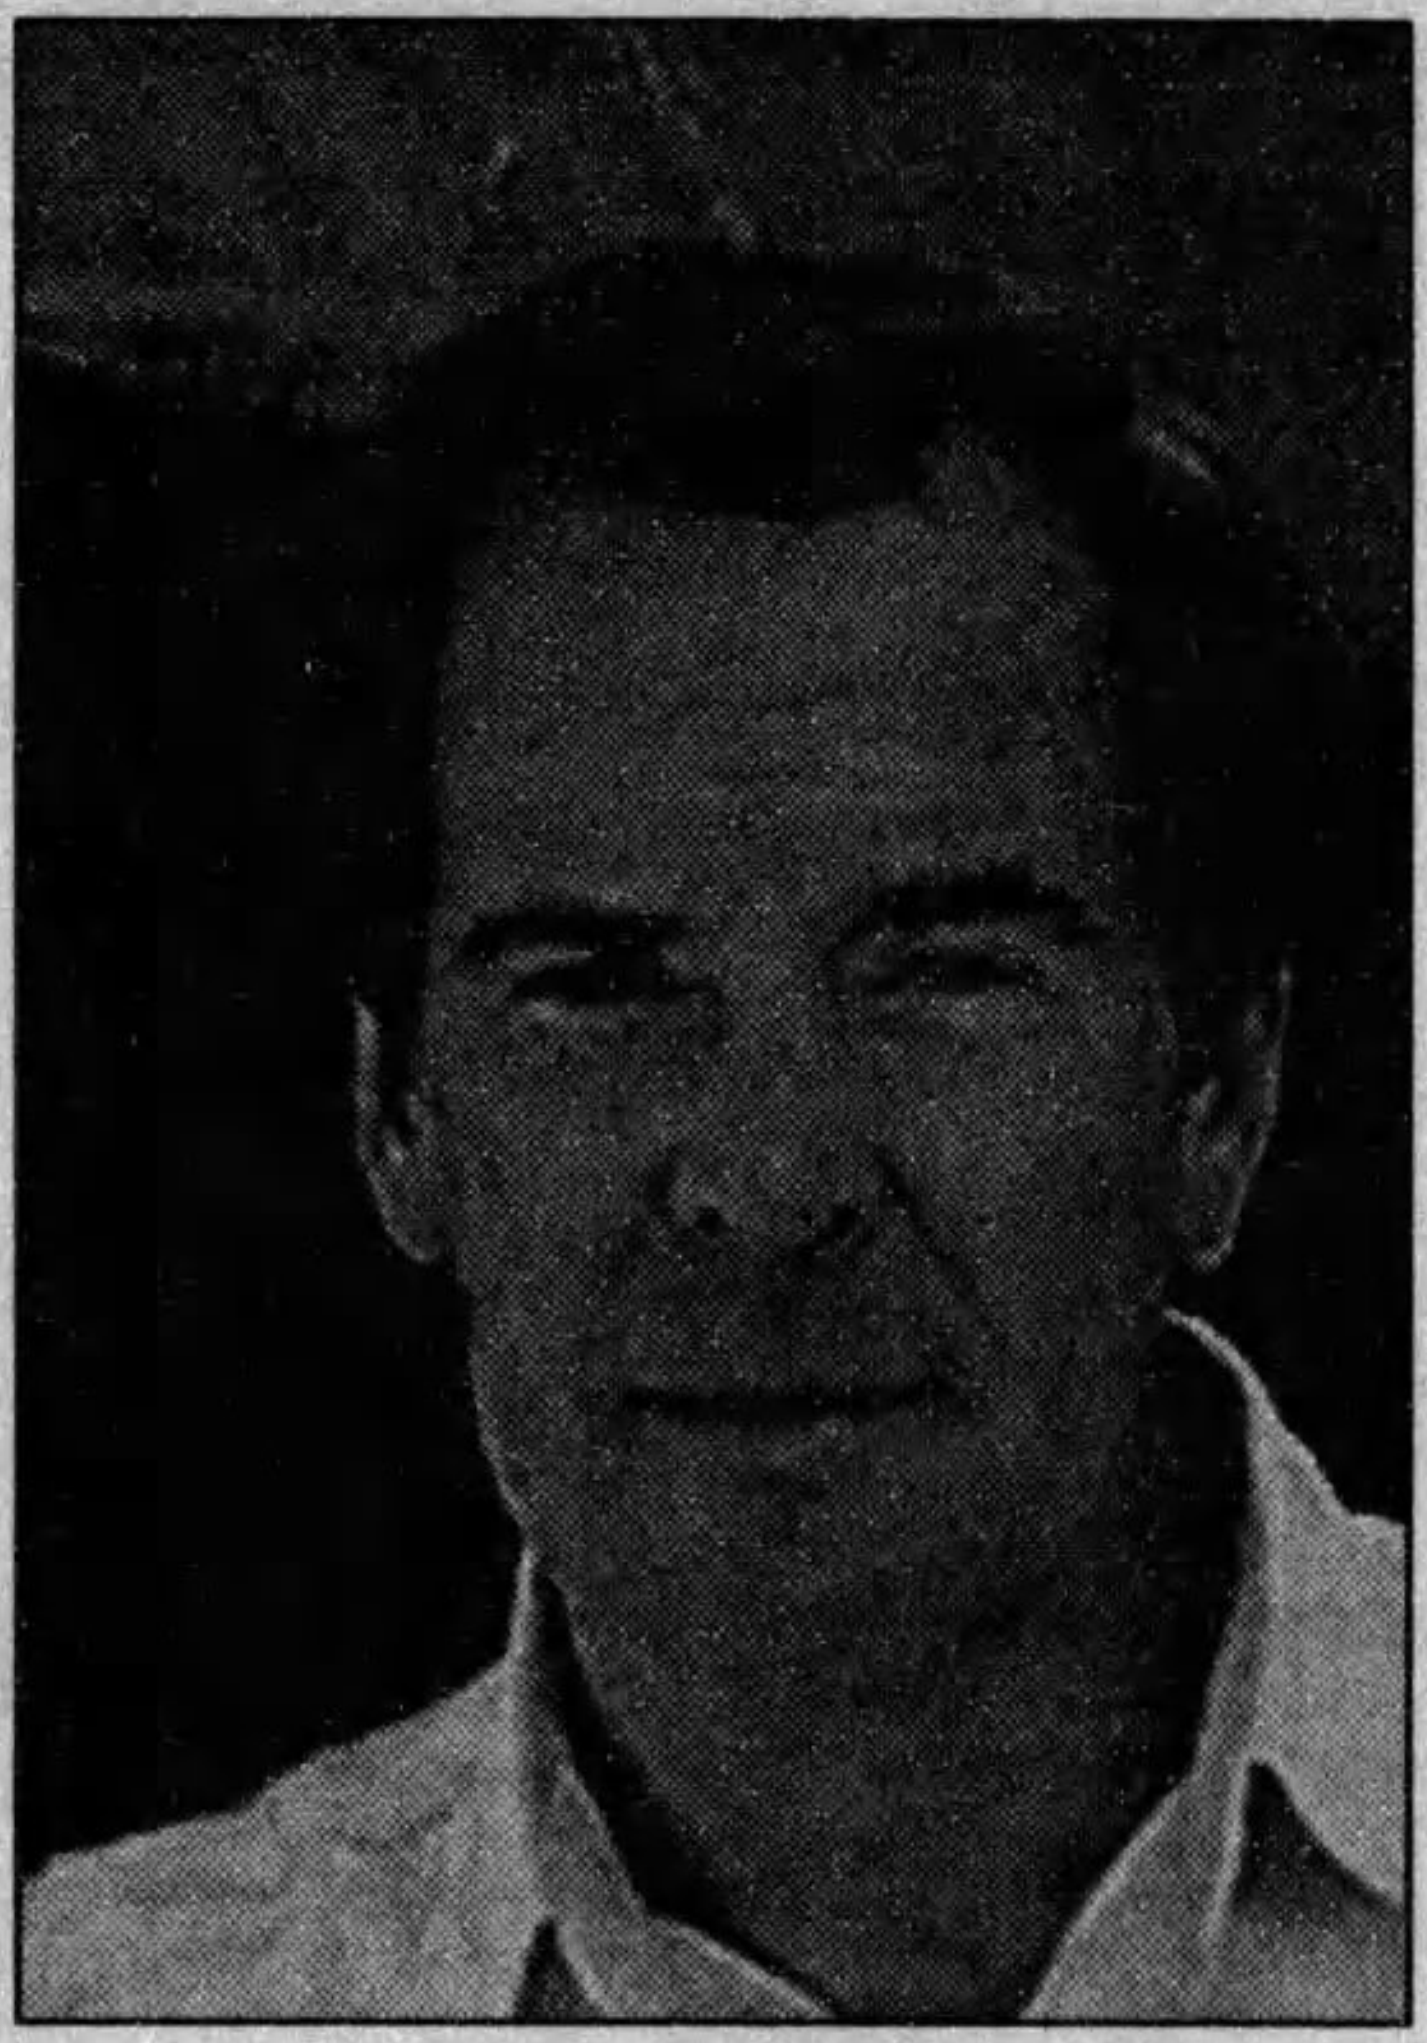
7 p.m. on FOX

Kelso (Ashton Kutcher) tries to get Jackie (Mila Kunis) back by writing her a song, but instead of charmed, she's just more confused ... and more inclined to lean on Hyde (Danny Masterson). Eric and Donna (Topher Grace, Laura Prepon) have their own troubles when Eric attempts to prove he wears the pants in the relationship. Wilmer Valderrama also stars in "Kelso's Serenade."

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

"Sandra Dee" is the poor-little-rich-girl story of the actress whose sexy but wholesome on-screen persona charmed moviegoers — especially teen-age boys — in the 1950s and '60s. But the story lines of her real life are the stuff of tragedy: sexual abuse, loneliness, miscarriage, divorce and drink. By age 26, the one-time winner of the Golden Globe for most promising newcomer was a reclusive single mother whose career was virtually over. Life has gotten brighter for her in recent years; she's beaten the booze and an eating disorder and is a proud grandma. Interviewees include co-stars Cliff Robertson and James Darren ("Gidget").



Peter Jennings
PETER JENNINGS REPORTING

Peter Jennings Reporting

8 p.m. on ABC

He remains one of the world's most influential figures, but we know very little about the man whom Christians call the son of God. Peter Jennings attempts to remedy that with "The Search for Jesus."

Third Watch

9 p.m. on NBC

A misunderstanding turns into a political mess for the police in "Officer Involved." It starts when Sully (Skipp Sudduth) is injured and loses his gun during a pursuit. A black man picks up the weapon and is returning it to Sully when Davis (Coby Bell), misinterpreting his intentions, shoots him. Bosco (Jason Wiles) urges Yokas (Molly Price) to stay with her husband for the kids' sake, while Kim (Kim Raver) is the recipient of a bombshell from her ex-hubby (Eddie Cibrian). Rosie O'Donnell guest stars.

Tuesday's Best Bets

Always a Bridesmaid

5 p.m. on MAX

Filmmaker Nina Davenport turns her camera on a very personal subject: finding a husband, or — perish the thought — failing to. Her brother's wedding is the backdrop for a look at her own love life.

Hollywood at Your Feet: The Story of the Chinese Theatre Footprints

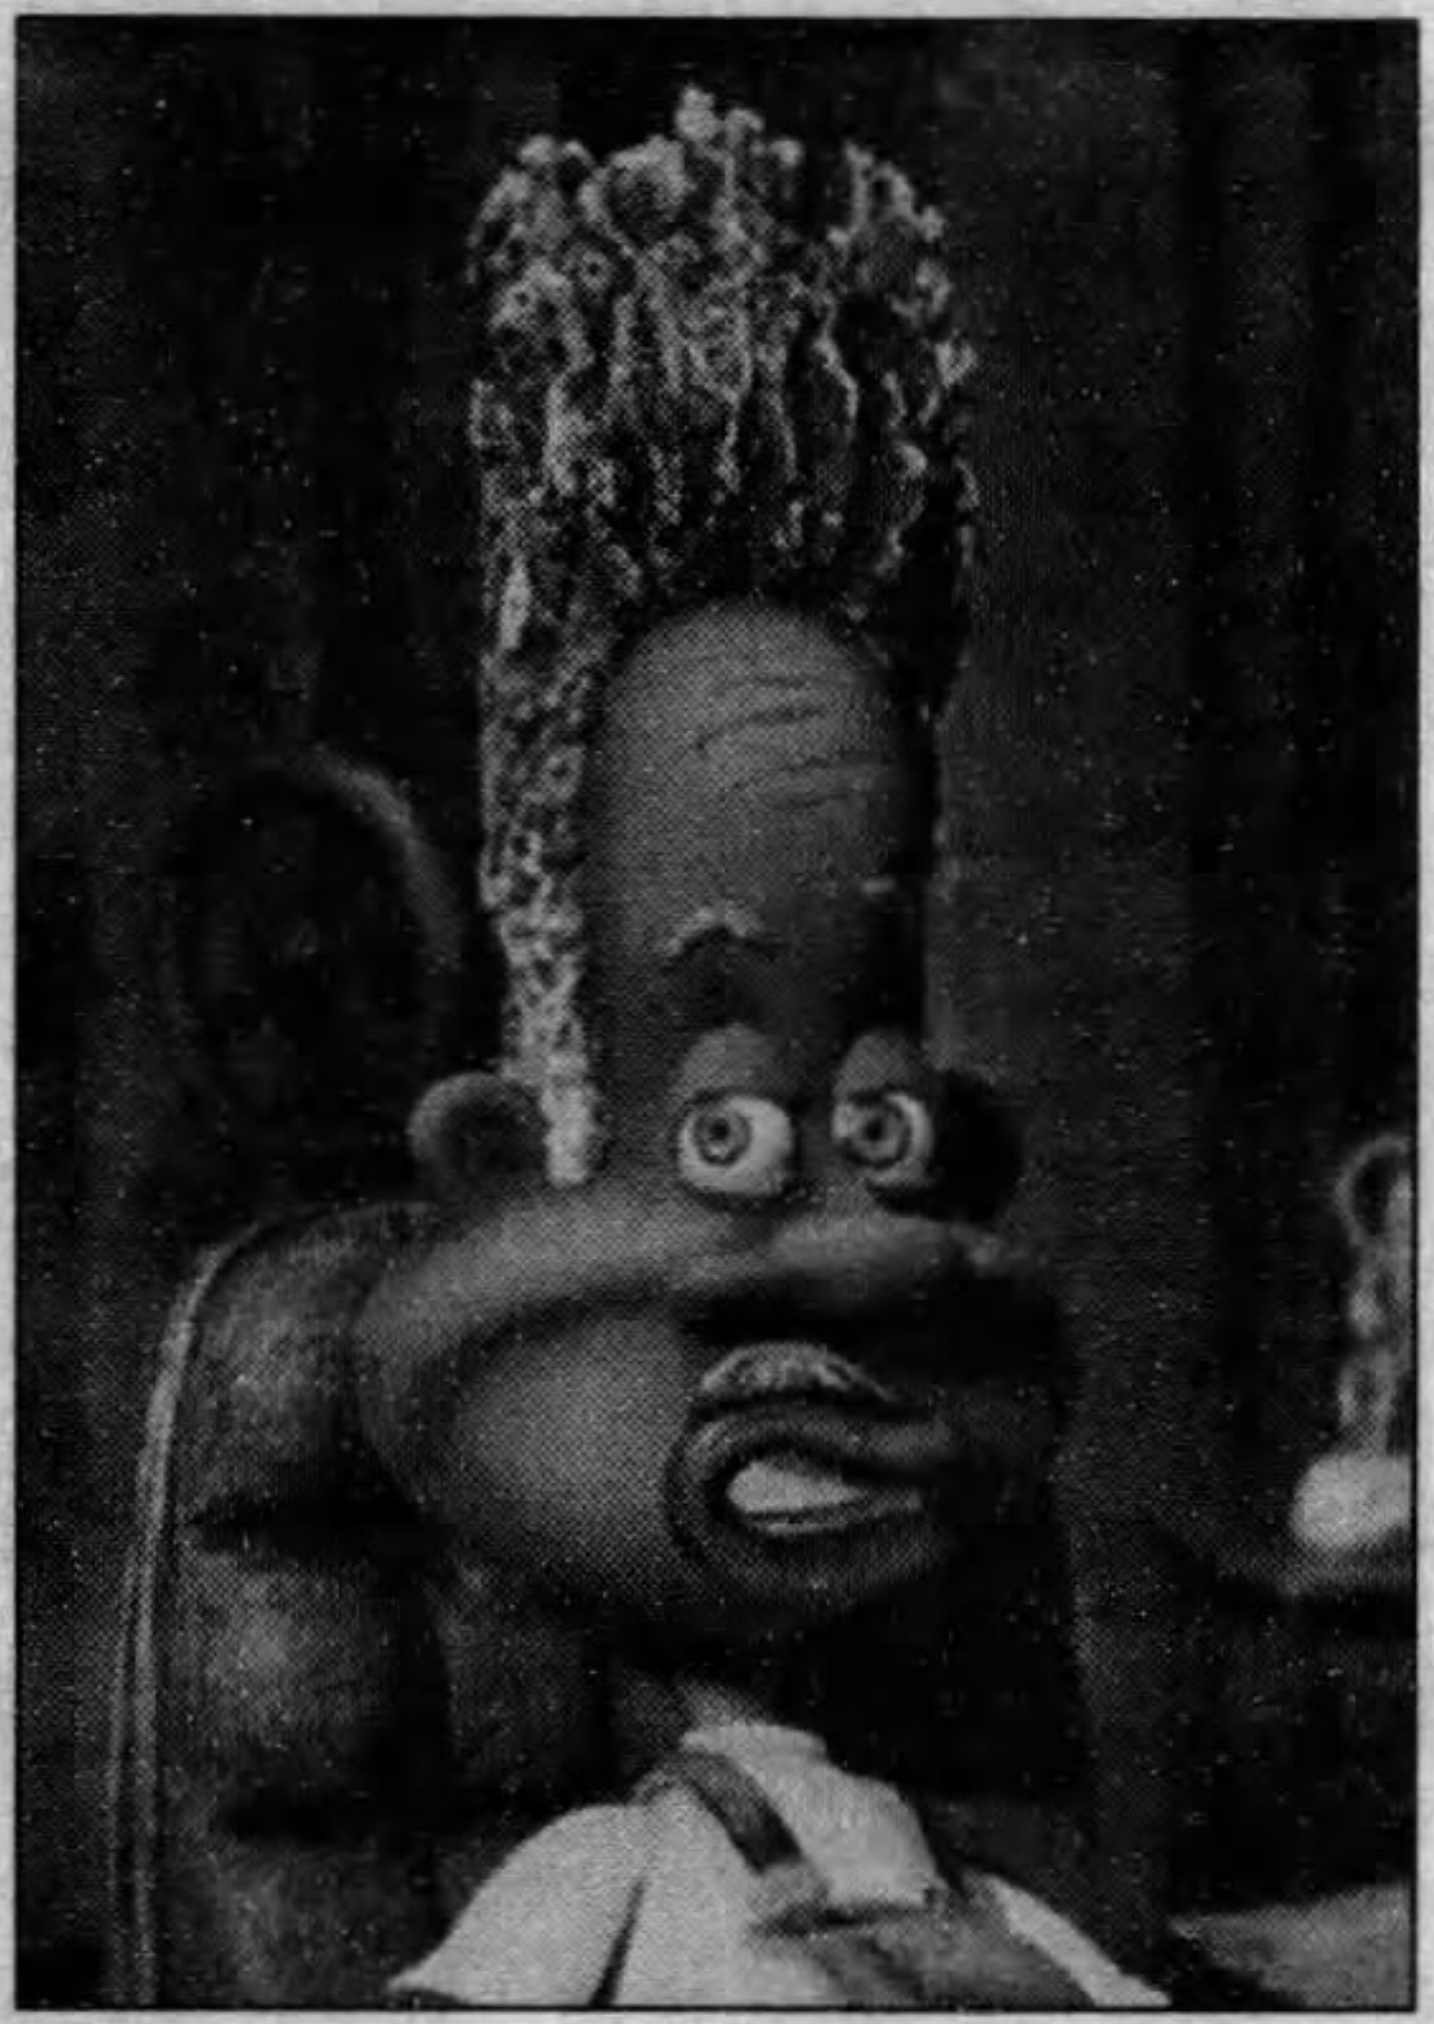
7 p.m. on AMC

Jimmy Durante's schnozz. Roy Rogers' gun. Shirley Temple's tiny feet. Betty Grable's legs. They're all immortalized in cement outside the building formerly known as Grauman's Chinese Theatre. Raquel Welch hosts a profile of the Hollywood institution where the stars have literally made their mark, and where ordinary people can still touch history.

The PJs

7:30 p.m. on FOX

Thurgood (voice of Eddie Murphy) regrets allowing Smokey (voice of Shawn Michael Howard) to stay in a spare apartment after a hurricane. Long after the storm has blown over, Smokey is still there, and the law says he can stay six months. Thurgood will need to try some devious tactics to get him out in "Smokey the Squatter." Loretta Devine and Ja'net DuBois also provide voices.



Thurgood
THE PJS

Will & Grace

8 p.m. on NBC

"The Hospital Show" puts a new spin on the expression "funny as a heart attack." The troubled ticker in this case belongs to Karen's (Megan Mullally) husband, Stan, and while his condition is no joke, there's a "Seinfeld"-worthy callousness fest in the waiting room, as her friends take bets on who'll be the recipient of Karen's emotional breakdown. Eric McCormack, Debra Messing, Sean Hayes and Shelley Morrison also star.

Investigative Reports

9 p.m. on A&E

"The Cold Case Files, Program No. 8" follows law enforcement authorities as they reopen several long-unsolved crimes, including the convoluted case of James McCutcheon's 1994 disappearance. The Florida man's roommate, James Drysdale, was a prime suspect, but his alibi initially checked out, and so did he ... for parts unknown. The program also recounts how the discovery of a chilling videotape led police to an arsonist who did $2 million in damage in Redwood City, Calif.

NBA Draft

6:30 p.m. on TNT

The New Jersey Nets have first choice this year as NBA teams gather to pick the best of the pro wannabes. If the Nets want a power forward, they have plenty of possibilities, including college player of the year Kenyon Martin of Cincinnati, Stromile Swift of LSU and Marcus Fizer of Iowa State. Veteran TNT hoop announcer Ernie Johnson hosts the cable channel's four hours of draft coverage.

Opposite Sex

7 p.m. on FOX

Fifteen-year-old Jed (Milo Ventimiglia) wants nothing more to do with girls after a recent relationship disaster. Imagine his shock when he discovers his new school is girls, girls, girls. It's recently gone coed, and Jed is one of only three male students. The others are Cary (Chris Evans), who's thrilled with the odds, and Phil (Kyle Howard), who's more excited about the school's record of graduating Ivy Leaguers. Lindsey McKeon, Margot Finley, Garcelle Beauvais and Chris Hogan also star in the "Pilot" of this new teen drama series from the creators of "Never Been Kissed."

Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

Czar Peter the Great, credited with bringing Russia literally and figuratively into the 18th century, was a true Renaissance man. A master of skills ranging from shipbuilding and engraving to barbering and dentistry, he strengthened the state's power, created an army and navy, and encouraged business, government and science to look to the West for inspiration. But he had his dark side, taxing his people heavily for his reforms and even executing his own son for treason.

The Drew Carey Show

8 p.m. on ABC

Bo Derek guest stars as herself in "Drew's Reunion." Lewis (Ryan Stiles) doesn't want to look like a dateless wonder in front of his old high-school friends and foes, so he persuades beautiful Bo to accompany him to the class reunion. Drew fears the old gang will be underwhelmed by his accomplishments — or lack thereof.

Spin City

8:30 p.m. on ABC

Christine Taylor (Marcia from the big-screen "Brady Bunch" movies) guest stars in "A Tale of Two Sisters" as Caitlin's (Heather Locklear) lovely sibling, Catherine, whose budding romance with Mike (Michael J. Fox) is turning Caitlin green with jealousy. Stuart (Alan Ruck) decides to become an artist — not to bare his tortured soul on canvas, but to peek at the women who bare all in the studio.

Thursday's Best Bets

Golf

11 a.m. on ESPN

As the U.S. Senior Open tees off from Saucon Valley Country Club in Bethlehem, Pa., Dave Eichelberger must be wondering if he's in another funk. After 30 years of trying, Eichelberger finally won his first major at last year's Open. It was his first win since 1997, continuing a consistent pattern of playing well for a few weeks, then all but disappearing for a few years. He'll resurface today as defending champion, a title he's not used to holding.

Movie: Kiss of Death

7 p.m. on FOX

Ex-con Jimmy Kilmartin's efforts to go straight are put on hold by his cousin, a car thief who needs his help with a delivery. Jimmy is caught, does time and is soon under pressure from the authorities to deliver something else: the kingpin of the car-theft operation, Little Junior Brown. David Caruso, in his post-"NYPD Blue" big-screen starring debut, is underwhelming as Jimmy, but Nicolas Cage plays Little Junior to psychotic perfection. Helen Hunt, Ving Rhames and Samuel L. Jackson also star in the 1995 crime drama.

Movie: The Great White Hope

7 p.m. on AMC

James Earl Jones and Jane Alexander earned Oscar nominations for re-creating their Broadway roles in this 1970 drama. Jones plays a black heavyweight champion battling racism for his ring success and his white mistress. Lou Gilbert, Hal Holbrook and Moses Gunn also star. The screening kicks off a minimarathon of boxing films that includes the Muhammad Ali biopic "The Greatest," starring Ali as himself.

KISS OF DEATH

Frasier

8 p.m. on NBC

Frasier and Niles (Kelsey Grammer, David Hyde Pierce) have separate strange encounters with women in "To Thine Old Self Be True." Frasier is trying to win Regan (Gigi Rice) back when hosting Donny's (Saul Rubinek) bachelor party puts him in an incriminating position with a stripper.

Just Shoot Me

8:30 p.m. on NBC

Red faces abound in "With Thee I Swing," as Maya and Elliott (Laura San Giacomo, Enrico Colantoni) befriend another couple (Arye Gross, Ashley Gardner) and invite them to a swing club. They're talking about swing dancing; their new friends are thinking something completely different. At the office, Jack pushes Finch (David Spade) to wheedle a secret out of his counterpart at Donald Trump's office, landing him in hot water for breaking the assistants code.

Friday's Best Bets

Major League Baseball

6:05 p.m. on TBS

A rivalry that really gained momentum in last season's NLCS continues when the Atlanta Braves visit the New York Mets. Along with their top-notch pitching, the Braves field a potent lineup, especially if Brian Jordan is on his game. In a recent 25-game stretch, Jordan hit 10 home runs and drove in 24. For the Mets, second baseman Edgardo Alfonzo is one of the top 10 players in baseball, although not many fans realize it. In a recent players-only survey, he was voted the second-most underrated player in the game.

Sabrina, the Teenage Witch

7 p.m. on ABC

Sabrina tries to avoid the Halloween hype by signing on for the night shift at the college coffeehouse. But when you're a witch, she discovers, you can run but you can't hide from the holiday. Biography

7 p.m. on A&E

Many of his spiritual brothers have been tainted by scandal, but Billy Graham, who was bringing people to Jesus via television before it was cool, has stayed above the fray. "Billy Graham: A Personal Crusade" profiles the Teflon evangelist who was a heck-raising kid before becoming born again at age 16 and finding his calling in conversion. A friend of every U.S. president from Harry Truman on, he was disillusioned by the "dark side" of Richard Nixon and stayed away from taking political positions thereafter, although he continued his close relationship with the White House.

Movie: Tidal Wave: No Escape

7 p.m. on ABC

In this electrifying thriller from 1997, Corbin Bernsen plays Dr. John Wahl, a scientist forced into helping a secret organization discover the mastermind behind a series of deadly man-made tidal waves. When Wahl is caught in a frame-up for the killer tsunamis, Dr. Jessica Weaver (Julianne Phillips) helps him clear his name.

Auto Racing

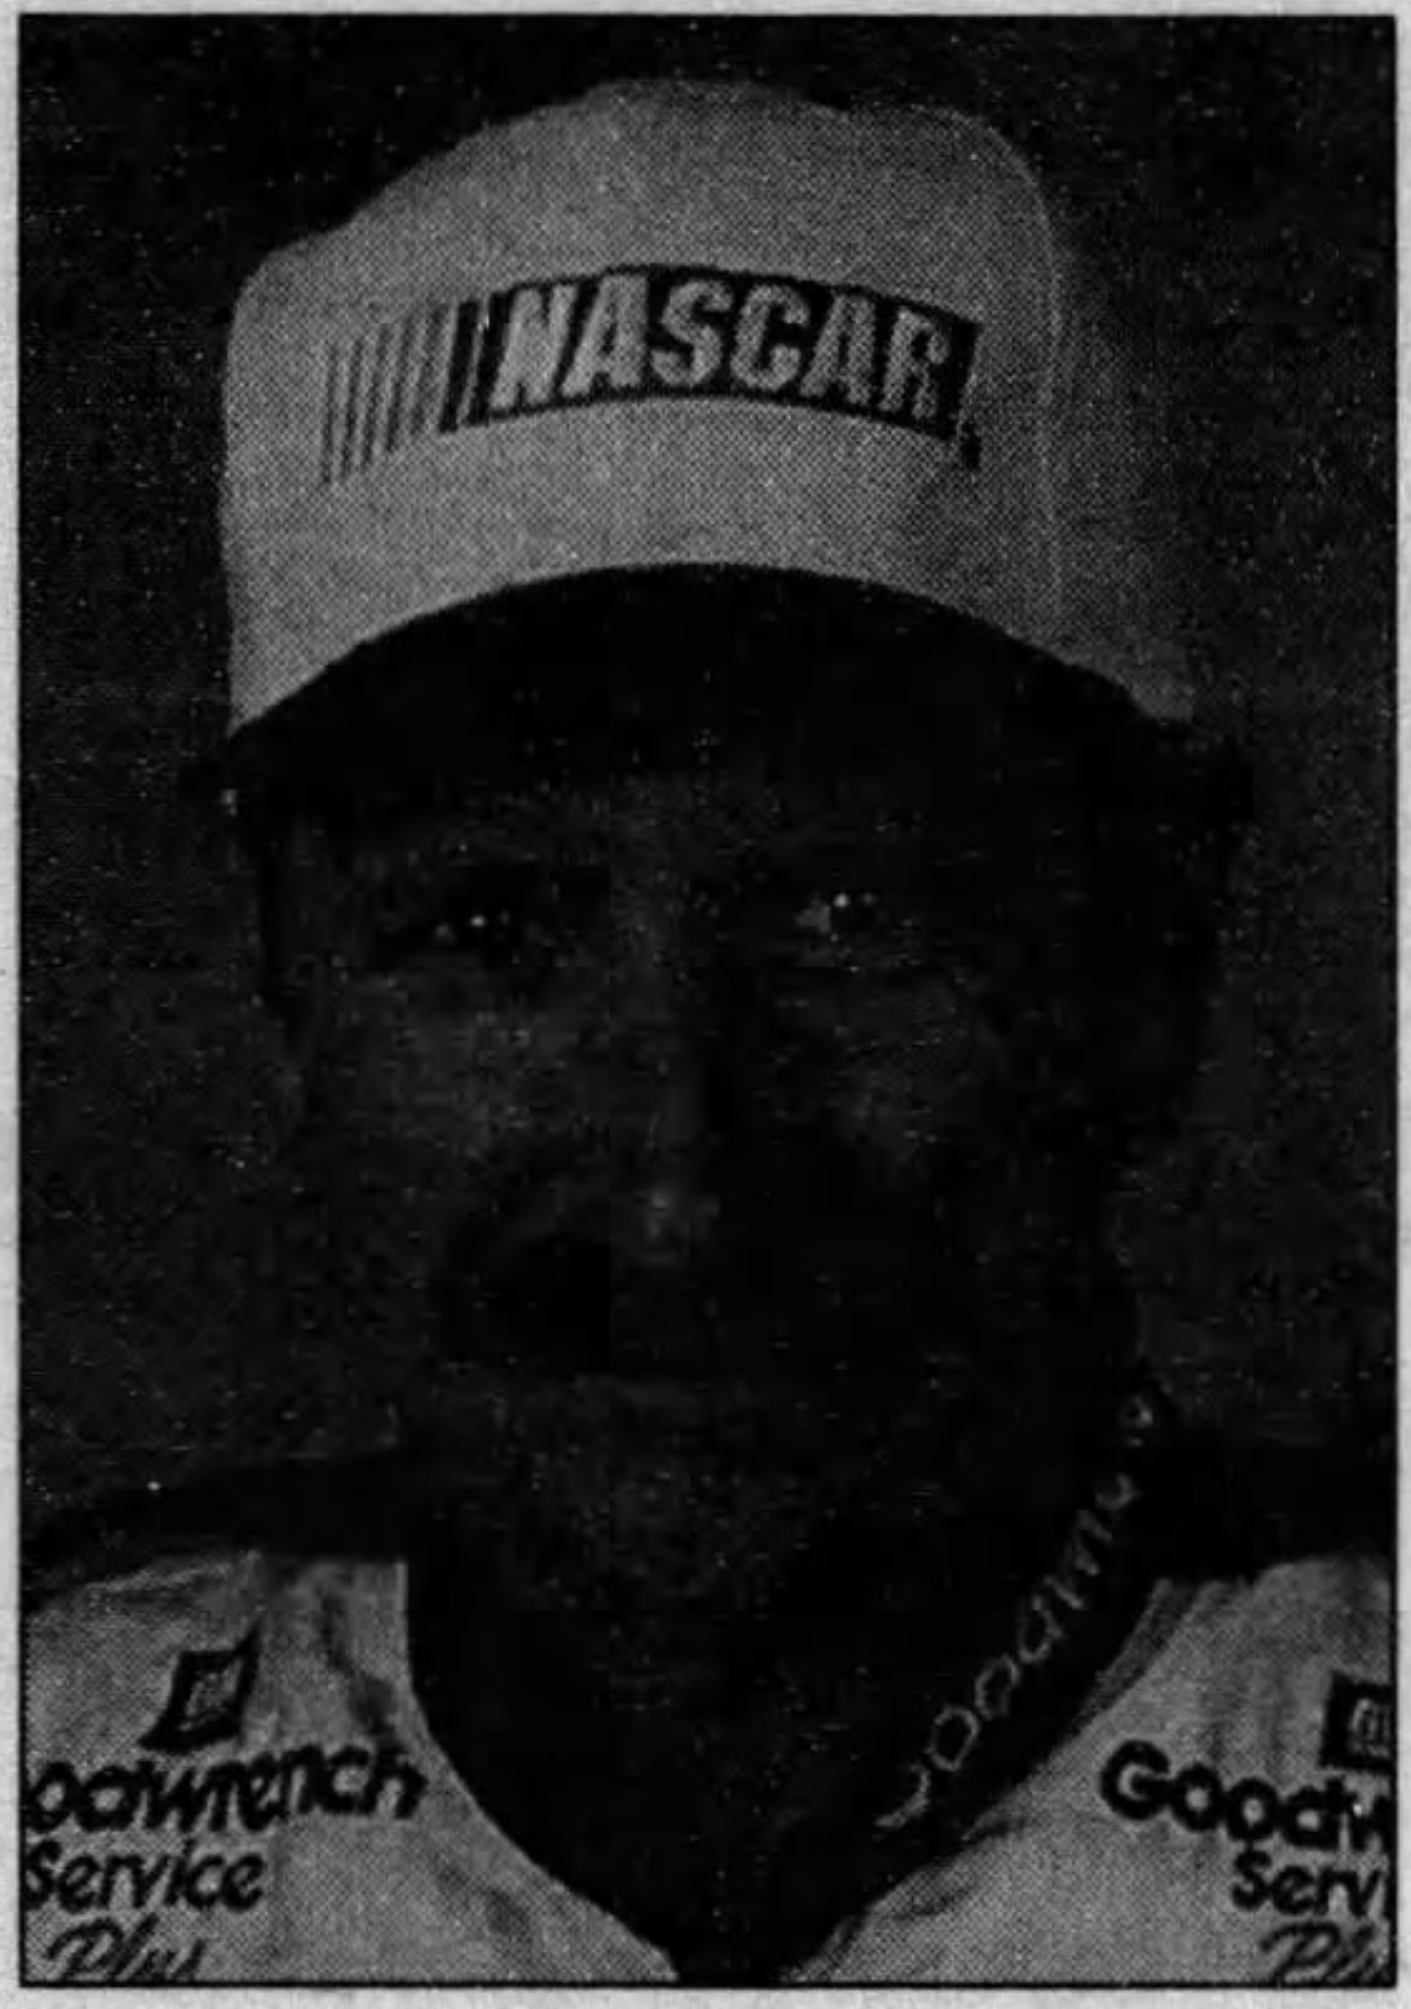
7 p.m. on CBS

The "Dale vs. Dale" Winston Cup show returns in a prime-time slot to Daytona International Speedway for the Pepsi 400. Dale Jarrett and Dale Earnhardt have staged some memorable battles at this track, most notably in the 1993 and 1996 Daytona 500s, with Jarrett winning both times. In this race last year, the stage seemed to be set for another showdown, as Jarrett led Earnhardt down the stretch and won again.

Movie: Free Willy 2: The Adventure Home

7 p.m. on NBC

Camping along the Pacific coast, Jesse (Jason James Richter) is reunited with his orca friend. But the outing turns dangerous when an oil spill separates Jesse from his family. Michael Madsen, Jayne Atkinson and August Shellenberg star.



Dale Ernhardt
PEPSI 400

Movie: The General's Daughter

7 p.m. on SHOW

Military cop Paul Brenner investigates the sadistic murder of a promising young captain and discovers the victim knew something about sadism; she had a kinky side and a long list of sex partners. Aided by a fellow warrant officer with whom he once had a romance, he uncovers a sordid mess involving nearly every senior officer on the base. Not for the squeamish and definitely not for kids, the 1999 mystery also stars James Cromwell as the victim's father, a general with political aspirations, and James Woods as her boss, whose verbal sparring with Brenner is a highlight of the film.

America's Most Wanted: America Fights Back

8 p.m. on FOX

Everybody's had an obsession of some kind — a crush on a teacher or a movie star, or a passion for music or sports, for example. Most of them are temporary and benign, but sometimes they can turn deadly. John Walsh hosts an investigation of stalkers, serial killers and others driven to violence by their obsessions. In addition to tips on how to spot this behavior and protect ourselves from it, the hour also explores the obsessive streak in each of us and how easy it is to cross the line from thought to action.
